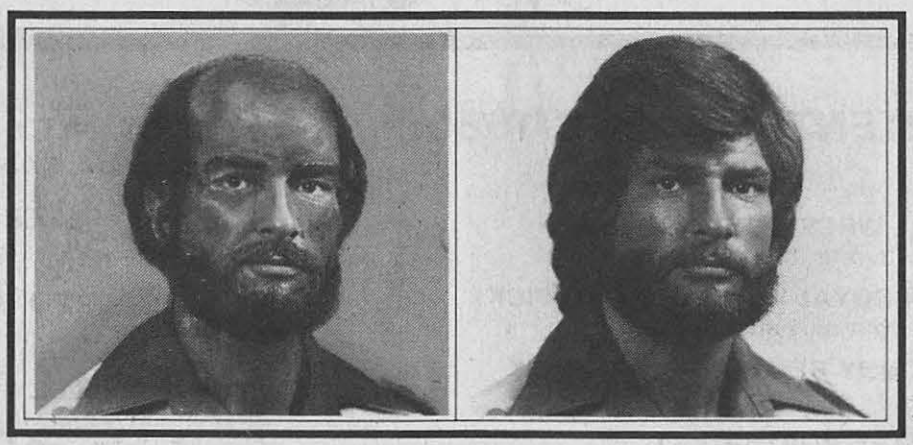
THE GUARANTEED HAIR PLAN

BECAUSE I WOULD RATHER HAVE HAIR THAN NOT

By T.G.M. KLAR, President, Klar Company, M/O Division



THE PICTURES ARE THE PROOF. I certainly think that I look much better with a healthy head of hair than without.

When my hair became thin and started falling out I became concerned.

Through an artist's rendition in the retouched photograph of me without hair you can see why I would be concerned. Like most people I would rather have hair than not, however, I did not want to have thin, lifeless hair.

The picture on the right is a recent photograph of me - totally unretouched - with a thick, healthy head of MY OWN hair at 35. As you can see I am no longer worried about a hair problem. How did I solve it? Actually, it was just a simple 1-2 step once I found the solution. After years of trying different hair products, shampoos, creams and vitamins to help my own thin hair problem, I recognized that MANY hair problems, male and female, were two-fold.

FIRST: Hair may become oily and limp, dry, lifeless and THIN.

SECOND: Healthy new hair might GROW OUT SLOWLY or may NOT grow out at all in places.

It became obvious to me that for a two-part hair problem, a two-part solution was needed.

① I had to find a way to get back a thick, healthy growth of hair.

② I needed to find a substance that would protect the hair that I had. Something that would make it appear healthier and THICKER right away. I didn't want to wait for 6 months or a year.

As you can imagine, my Company and I went all out to find a solution.

After several years of research, we finally came up with a solution. It came in two steps: Step 1 - Solved my problems of having limp, lifeless and THIN HAIR, and Step 2 - Solved the problem of my HAIR GROWING OUT SLOWLY or not growing at all in places.

— THE SOLUTION —

PART 1 Since your HAIR and SCALP grow from THE INSIDE OF YOUR BODY OUTWARD, it is absolutely necessary that you have the ingredients for a healthy scalp and a thick full head of hair INSIDE YOUR BODY.

That is just COMMON SENSE.

Doctors and Scientists, Nutritionists and Beauty Experts have stated that without the ingredients INSIDE your body needed to feed the scalp and hair at the roots, the following problems may develop: A greasy, oily dandruff • Dry hair lacking shine, luster and body • The premature graying of hair • Oily hair • SLOW growing hair • Thin hair • and the • Falling out of hair in some cases for women as well as men.

But what are the ingredients necessary for healthy hair, skin and scalp?

We researched the latest reports of Scientists, Doctors, Nutritionists and Beauty Experts.

After we completed the research, we needed to develop a special formula combining many of the EXPERT'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

For this, my Company and I turned to one of America's leading Pharmaceutical Laboratories. Not for some magical cure-all but simply for a common sense, completely safe, HIGH POTENCY SUPPLEMENT containing 57 SPECIFIC INGREDIENTS.

The chemists went to work on scientifically formulating this HIGH POTENCY SUPPLEMENT. They found ways of putting together ingredients recommended by many Doctors, Nutritionists and Beauty Experts as a MUST for healthy HAIR, SKIN and SCALP. They were able to put it all into a completely safe, easy to take and convenient TABLET form.

Among the 57 INGREDIENTS contained in the tablets are PROTEIN-AMINO ACIDS, 12 VITAMINS, LIPOTROPIC FACTORS, 10 MINERALS, NUTRIENTS FOR THE SKIN, R.N.A., plus IRON and BIOTIN. BIOTIN is a nutrient recently reported to aid many with scalp problems, thinning hair, as well as balding.

Finally, after years of waiting, the tablets were completed.

Next came the big test.

WOULD THE TABLETS REALLY WORK FOR ME?

My recent photograph speaks for itself. BUT WHAT ABOUT OTHERS? By 1978 the results were in.

In the past year our PLAN tablets have become one of the world's largest selling tablets designed for HAIR and SKIN.

Since they are so safe that they do no require a prescription, our tablets have been ordered and even more important RE-ORDERED by the MILLIONS by satisfied customes from every state in the United States as well as from Canada, Australia, Europe, Asia and even Africa.

Finally, after years of research and development I had the tablets that gave me the necessary ingredients for healthy SCALP, SKIN and HAIR that really worked, but I didn't stop there.

I wanted something that would help to MEND and PROTECT the hair that I had left on my head as I realized it takes time for new hair to grow out. That brought me to the second part of our GUARANTEED HAIR PLAN.

PART 2 We again went to the laboratory and research. We found that scientific tests have shown that when a substance known as PANTHENOL was regularly shampooed into the hair, it moisturized the hair, conditioned it and REPAIRED DAMAGED HAIR SHAFTS. But that wasn't all - further test results showed that it also FLUFFED up hair and actually MADE IT THICKER.

This was the answer we had been looking for. Getting fantastic results and THICKER hair by simply shampooing liquid PANTHENOL into the hair.

No waiting for months and years.

At last, the laboratory gave me a shampoo-in sample with another ingredient called P.A.B.A. added to the PANTHENOL to further protect the old hair.

I personally tested the PANTHENOL and P.A.B.A. on my own hair.

The very first day I used it I found it to be the most FANTASTIC hair conditioner I have ever used.

My hair was IMMEDIATELY healthier looking, FLUFFIER and THICKER, HOWEVER, I didn't stop the test there. I went to friends and relatives and asked them to try it. Next, I went to the experts and the public. I asked hair dressers in Beauty Salons to test our Hair Conditioner themselves.

When the reports came in, they were all raving about their fantastic results. They wanted to know where they could buy more. They said it left their hair Healthier Looking, Fluffier and THICKER.

By combining these two great products; the first for SCALP, SKIN and HAIR CARE FROM WITHIN. The second, A LIQUID CONDITIONER that MOISTURIZES, CONDITIONS and THICKENS HAIR for IMMEDIATE RESULTS FROM WITHOUT.

I had finally found a COMPLETE SOLUTION to my hair problems.

Having found what I believe to be the very best HAIR CARE PLAN in the world and being the President of a Company, I decided it was just good business sense to make this plan available to everyone. So . . . We named it G.H.P. which stands for GUARANTEED HAIR PLAN.

Why Guaranteed Hair Plan?

Because our Company GUARANTEES the following:

After taking the tablets and shampooing in the PANTHENOL, P.A.B.A. hair conditioner for two weeks, Trying it - Testing it - Comparing it to any and all other HAIR CARE PRODUCTS in the WORLD, regardless of their price, $50-$75 - or even $100.

If you don't agree that our GUARANTEED HAIR PLAN is the VERY BEST and most sensible hair plan available anywhere, return the bottles within 30 days of purchase and you will receive your money back. NO QUESTIONS ASKED. In other words you MUST be satisfied. It MUST work for you WITHOUT EXCEPTIONS, Male or Female, Young or Old, or it costs you nothing.

What could be fairer?

Would you like a naturally healthier looking, more manageable, fuller, thicker head of hair? Order now and discover for yourself why so many say that: For Problem Hair - THE GUARANTEED HAIR PLAN IS THE VERY BEST!

— NOW FOR THE BEST PART —

BOTH the tablets containing expert's recommended ingredients for HEALTHY good looking SKIN, SCALP and HAIR, as well as the concentrated, long lasting PANTHENOL & P.A.B.A. CONDITIONER for FULLER, FLUFFIER, THICKER HAIR is now available by mail order. BOTH for ONLY $19.95, plus postage and handling.

To order, send your check or money order for only $19.95 plus $1.40 for postage and RUSH handling to: G.H.P., Department VS34 P.O. Box 1048, Manchester, N.H. 03101.

Foreign orders send U.S. funds only and add $1.00.

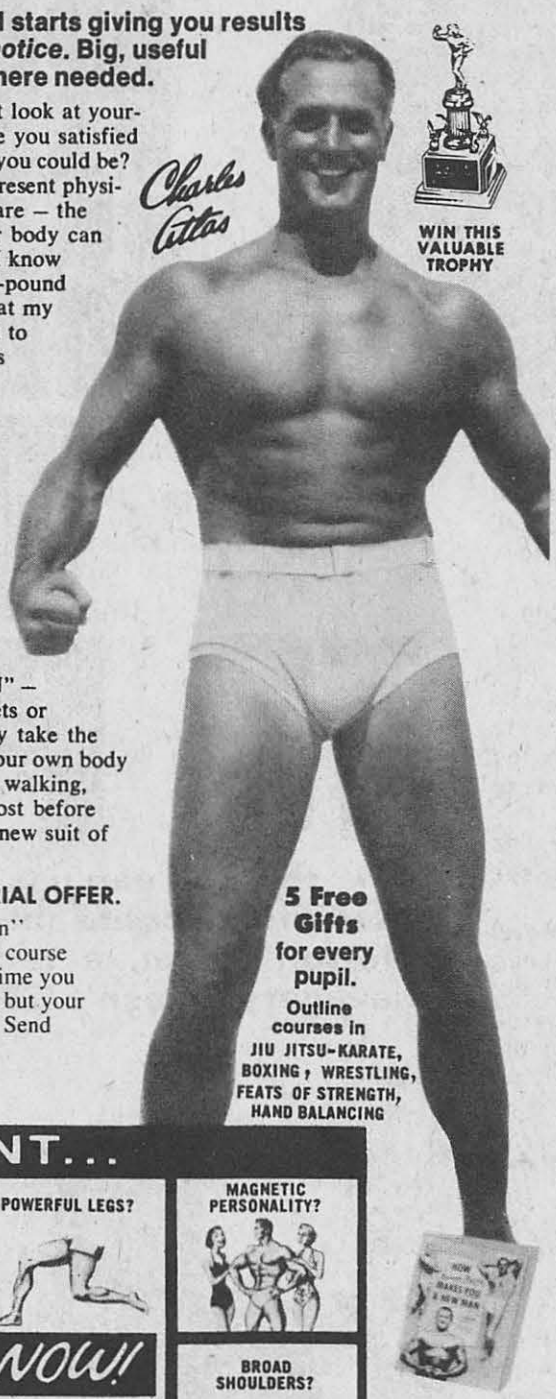
An ATLAS BODY? In 7 days

my method of DYNAMIC-TENSION starts giving you results you can feel and your friends will notice. Big, useful muscles. Gain pounds in weight where needed. Lose "pot belly." Take a good honest look at yourself! Are you proud of your body – or are you satisfied to go through life being just "half the man" you could be? No matter how ashamed you are of your present physical condition – or how old or young you are – the "sleeping" muscles already present in your body can turn you into a REAL man! Believe me, I know – because I was once a skinny, scrawny 97-pound half-alive weakling! People used to laugh at my build and make fun of me. I was ashamed to strip for sports or the beach . . . shy of girls . . . afraid of healthy competition.



WIN THIS VALUABLE TROPHY

HOW I CHANGED FROM A 97 LB. WEAKLING TO A REAL MAN.

One day, I discovered a secret that changed me from a timid, frightened scarecrow into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" – a "magic formula" that can help turn you, too, into a marvellous physical specimen . . . a REAL man from head to toe . . . a man who STANDS OUT in any crowd! What's my secret? "DYNAMIC-TENSION" – the natural method! No theory. No gadgets or contraptions. You just do as I did. Simply take the "sleeping" muscles already present inside your own body – build them up – use them every day in walking, bending over, reaching, even sitting! Almost before you know it, you're covered with a brand-new suit of beautiful, rock-hard SOLID MUSCLE!

THE INSULT THAT MADE A MAN OUT OF 'MAC'

NELSON ROYAL HAS A BONE TO PICK!

Eric the Red can use his bone like ancient gladiators could handle a sword. And Nelson Royal, a recent victim of Eric's savagery, doesn't like it one bit!

WHEN NELSON ROYAL agreed to do battle with Eric the Red, he did not count on one thing—George "Crybaby" Cannon.

Even before the match began it was obvious to observers Cannon was going to make sure his man won the match, even if he had to offer some "assistance" to Eric to insure the victory. That Eric the Red was eventually disqualified was of little consolation to Royal.

In fact, by the time Eric was disqualifed, Nelson could barely see what was happening.

"You see, it's like this," Royal explained later. "After I had been kicked, mauled, punched, clubbed, and choked, I really didn't notice too much of anything. I only wish I could have had a chance to give Eric and Crybaby Cannon a taste of their own medicine!"

This match was a difficult one from before it even started. The minute Nelson stepped out of his dressing room, it was clear there was going to be trouble during this match. Cannon was waiting at Royal's door. When Nelson emerged, George snarled at him, saying, "I'm going to make sure you don't win tonight, baby." Then he pulled a coiled rope from his pocket. "Just in case you get out of line . . ."

Royal tried to call the referee to point out that Cannon had

The Peaceful Man's Way to Win Fights

'If You Can't Avoid Trouble, At Least Avoid Losing'

I used to turn the other cheek. Ignore insults. Walk away from a fight. Out of fear.

All too often, my enemy looked too powerful to even try to beat. He won—hands down.

These days, I walk away for a different reason. I'm no longer afraid for myself. Now, I'm afraid for the other guy.

If he doesn't watch his step or his mouth, I can put him in the hospital for a couple of months. Or worse.

Since I developed my Peaceful Man's Way, trouble-makers seem to stay clear of me. Somehow, they sense that I can take them. If I want to.

It's as though I had an invisible bodyguard at my side 24-hours-a-day. Ready to spring to my defense instantly. To finish off anyone foolish enough to start up.

Yet, I never had a boxing lesson. I exercise much too little. And I am not a "muscle-man."

I go anywhere with confidence. Not looking for a fight, mind you. But perfectly able to handle the situation if one is absolutely unavoidable.

I'm positive that the Peaceful Man's Way will do for you what it did for me. Maybe more.

So positive, in fact, that I'm willing to let you try it out for 30 days without risking a penny.

To prove that you can promptly take care of any attacker with a few unexpected fight-winning surprises.

Such as a "little-finger" trick that cuts a tough wise-acre down to size.

A move with your wrist that makes him scream in excruciating pain.

Another with your foot that delivers eye-watering misery.

A devilish hand-clasp that breaks a choking strangle-hold. Topped by a follow-up that's a knock-out.

Just because you're peaceful doesn't mean that you have to be a victim. You may still look and act like you wouldn't hurt a fly. But heaven help the pest who mistakenly thinks you are an easy mark. A meek lamb anyone can push around with no come-back.

Instead, you turn into a tiger. Someone able to stop a mugger cold. Someone who can make a bully cry like a baby. Someone who ends fights the other guy begins.

I remember the last time I was forced to use the Peaceful Man's Way. This bruiser was a foot taller and fifty pounds heavier than me. A human King Kong.

I floored him in five seconds flat. He was totally stunned. I'll never forget that dazed look in his eyes as he asked himself "how?"

My wife knows how. I taught her and my kids. Child or adult, man or woman, anyone can learn how. And should.

You watch TV. You read the newspapers. Personal crime is our number one problem. Everyday, it's another rape, another mugging, another outrage. Don't wait until it happens to you.

Be prepared to save your life or prevent needless injury. With easily mastered techniques like these:

- The very first thing to do before a fight.
- How to overcome the mental block that ties your hands.
- How to stop being polite—and retaliate.
- How to use your feet as deadly weapons.
- How to throw a heavyweight for a loop-de-loop.
- 5 ways to paralyze an aggressor.
- The secret weapon that terrifies any opponent.

Plus dozens of ingenious "tricks" requiring no more skill than shaking hands. To keep you safe and sound no matter what. Regardless of your age, size, build, or strength.

I must warn you: Simple as they are, these methods can be fatal. They must be. Otherwise, they would be valueless to you when you need them the most.

Hold them for that key emergency moment when it's either you or him. Then—wham!

When you're out with your family or friends, it's great to know that you are covered. If you can't avoid trouble, at least avoid losing.

I'll be glad to send you a Review Digest of the Peaceful Man's Way to look over with no obligation whatsoever. In plain language, it reveals all the benefits and applications of my material.

In addition, the Review Digest offers you a special plan to test the Peaceful Man's Way for one whole month without risking one cent.

It could turn out to be the biggest bargain of your life. Just one use at the right time and you'll be miles ahead. Unscathed, with your pride intact. And alive!

For prompt shipment, simply mail the coupon with only $1. My unconditional money-back guarantee protects your investment. Later, my Peaceful Man's Way will protect you.

Return the coupon and I'll prove it to you. At my sole risk—not yours.

THE BLOODY RETURN OF THE SHEIK

After years of brutal punishment, Sheik was forced into the hospital because of extensive internal injuries. His comeback proved he may now be more dangerous than ever!

AS THE SHEIK entered the arena, the fans became strangely quiet. Though Sheik is not a fan favorite—in fact, most despise the fiery grappler—the crowd had to respect a man trying to make a comeback despite seemingly insurmountable odds.

Only a few weeks before, Sheik lay flat on his back in a hospital bed, weakened by the effects of a serious sensitive operation needed to correct numerous internal injuries. His team of physicians, culled from the best specialists in North America, was unsure whether Sheik could survive the surgery.

But Sheik surprised the doctors; he made a remarkably quick recovery from the operation. Soon he was as strong as before with only a large bandage over his stomach as a reminder of his serious surgery. His recuperative powers were so great he was ready to resume his career, only a few weeks after the operation!

When the doctors gave him a clean bill of health, Sheik immediately scheduled a comeback match. It was finally decided he would wrestle Johnny Rougeau.

On the night of the bout, Sheik's doctors sat nervously in the audience, worrying more about their patient's still not-quite-healed surgery scars than the outcome of the match. Firemen stood closely by in case Sheik tried any of his flame-throwing tactics. Fans, who had heard only recently of the sensitive operation, waited apprehensively for the wrestler to appear. When he finally made his entrance he looked as good as ever, except for the large white bandage taped to his mid-section.

As soon as the bell sounded, Sheik rushed toward his opponent. But Rougeau was determined not to let a man who sat on death's doorstep a few weeks before better him in this match. He sidestepped the attack, and Sheik was sent sprawling to the canvas.

Sheik quickly regained his

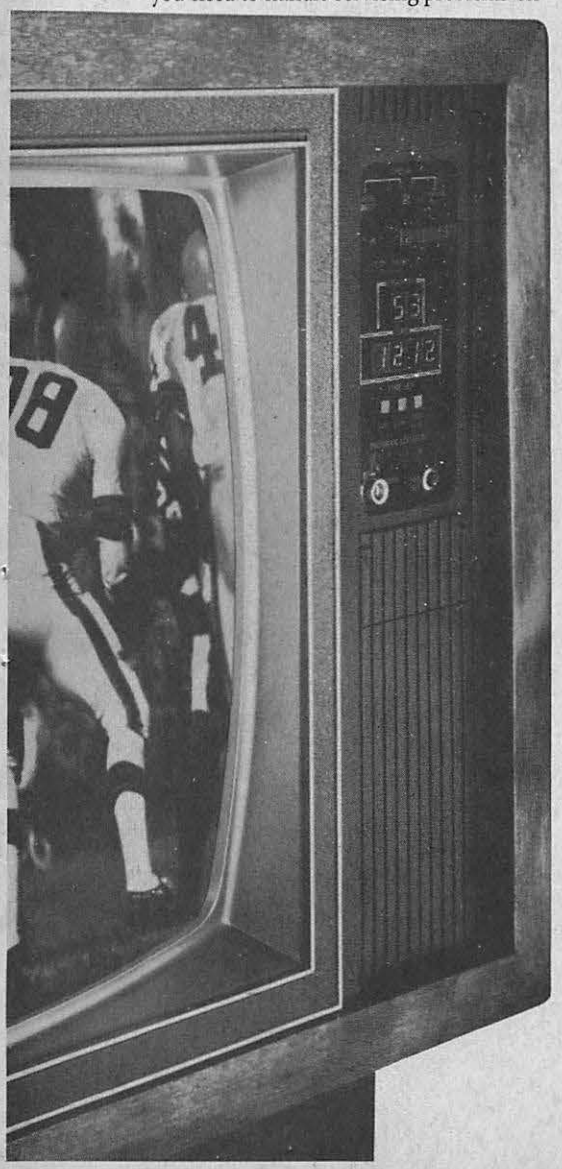
New from NRI! 25" DIAGONAL color TV that tunes by computer, programs an entire evening's entertainment.

Just part of NRI's training in servicing TV, stereo systems, video tape and disc players, car and portable radios.

Only NRI home training prepares you so thoroughly for the next great leap forward in TV and audio...digital systems. Already, top-of-the-line TV's feature digital tuning, computer programming is appearing, and new digital audio recording equipment is about to go on the market.

NRI is the only home study school to give you the actual "hands-on" training you need to handle servicing problems on tomorrow's electronic equipment. Because only NRI includes this designed-for-learning, 25" diagonal color TV with electronic tuning, built-in digital clock, and computer programmer as part of your training. With this advanced feature, you can pre-program an entire evening's entertainment.



Designed-for-learning Concept

The color TV you build as part of NRI's Master Course looks, operates, and performs like the very finest commercial sets. But behind that pretty picture is a unique designed-for-learning chassis. As you assemble it, you perform meaningful experiments. You even introduce defects, troubleshoot and correct them as you would in actual practice. And you end up with a magnificent, big-picture TV.

Build Stereo, Test Instruments

That's just a start. You demonstrate basic principles on the unique NRI Discovery Lab®, then apply them as you assemble a fine AM/FM stereo, complete with speakers. You also learn as you build your own test instruments, including a 5" triggered sweep oscilloscope, CMOS digital frequency counter, color bar generator, and transistorized volt-ohm meter. Use them for learning, use them later for professional servicing of TV and audio equipment.

Even Includes Video Systems

You need no previous experience of any kind. Starting with the basics, exclusive "bite-size" lessons cover subjects thoroughly, clearly, and concisely. "Hands-on" experiments reinforce theory for better comprehension and retention. And your personal NRI instructor is always available for advice and help. You'll be prepared to work with stereo systems, car radios, record and tape players, transistor radios, short-wave receivers, PA systems, musical instrument amplifiers, electronic TV games, even video tape recorders and tape or disc video playbacks.

Lou Albano's ego knows no bounds. Here he tells why he is superior in all ways to the living legend, Bruno Sammartino!

BY CAPTAIN LOU ALBANO

"EAT YOUR HEART OUT, BRUNO!"

PICTURES DON'T LIE. The proof is right on this page. The Captain is the most magnificent human being on the face of this or any other earth. It just goes to show how stupid Bruno Sammartino is when he dares to show his deformed body in the same arena with me. I'm beautiful and he's boring.

Look at the Captain's body. I'm so wonderful I make mirrors sigh with admiration. Is there a woman on earth who can resist my fabulous build? Is there a man alive who doesn't envy me? And they call Bruno Sammartino champion. Compared to me, he's a chump. In fact, compared to 98 percent of the world, he's a chump.

I'm the greatest specimen the human race has ever seen. I've got it all. My body is a temple of perfection. Look at my arms, muscles rippling like the mighty ocean. My chest is a powerpack of might. The muscles on my back allow me to lift cars without breaking a sweat. Just the other day I held up my car with one hand while I changed a flat tire with the other. It was too much trouble getting the jack out of the trunk.

Most important, I've got the most powerful legs in wrestling. I can do anything I want on those two magnificent limbs. I can spring to great heights, I have perfect leverage, and I can throw any opponent off me with a bridge. My legs are the best in

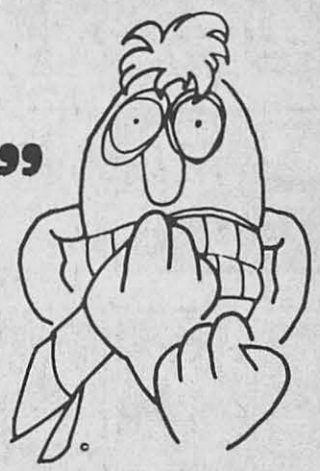
"...OH MY GOSH! I GOT RIPPED OFF!"



At least I'll bet that's what you'll think when the mailman hands you a thin envelope containing the material I'm going to sell you for $10.00!!

No, that's NOT a misprint. I both believe and HOPE that you'll think you've "been had" when you first lay your hands on my latest anemic-looking book (it's less than ¼" thick, and will take only an hour or so to read).

Why? Because if you tend to judge a book by its cover — when you see this one, you'll feel cheated and say to yourself, "Whaaaat? Ten bucks for that?!" But then, when you start reading it, see the facts, the figures — the substantiation — the proof — the unheard of guarantee — you will exclaim, "WOW! Only ten dollars for this?! Why it's worth ten times that! A hundred times that — a thousand times that — ten thousand times that!" (in fact, that's exactly what I GUARANTEE it to be worth; Ten thousand times your purchase price: $100,000.00!! — more on this later).

Perhaps you know me; I am Dean F. V. Du Vall. For the past 21 years I have devised countless sound methods for ordinary people to carve out chunks of wealth for themselves from home-operated enterprises, most of which can be started and successfully operated by mail. I've written nearly 20 self-enrichment/money-making books, some of which are practically household words: "50 Roads To Riches," "The Dynamics of Yes," "Du Vall Method For Acquiring Great Mail Order Wealth," "Blueprint For Financial Success" and many others.

I am the director emeritus of the famous World-Wide Mail Order Millionaires club, and the editor of the monthly DAX MONEY-MAKER CONFIDENTIAL NEWSLETTER, one of the most respected and honored business opportunity research periodicals in the world. All of my ventures have been highly successful (thank you!) and today I head three publishing firms.

Somewhere along the way, I literally stumbled onto a veritable goldmine-type concept that I had previously overlooked. (Probably because it's so obvious and simple). Get this: Anyone, young, old, rich, poor, smart, ignorant or what-have-you, can do it. It requires very little start-up capital, and little or nothing to keep it going — indefinitely. It involves a specific product that not only is ultimately FREE to you, but you are actually PAID to get it! Yet you stock no merchandise. (No, this is NOT a drop/ship deal of any kind.) It is a REPEAT business in a very big way. Most every customer comes back for more (I've had them BEGGING for more — with cash in hand!)

What this unique business is NOT:

- ✓ No sex or off-color stuff
- ✓ No "information selling" scheme
- ✓ No chain letter junk
- ✓ No positive-thinking, occult or mystical stuff
- ✓ No problems, no hassles, no unhappy customers

What it IS:

- ✓ 100% legal and ethical — indeed, PRESTIGIOUS
- ✓ Clean, above board, respectable
- ✓ Potentially the most profitable home (or office) based business in existence
- ✓ A FACTUAL means to FAST riches
- ✓ Nothing like you've EVER seen advertised anywhere before!

This is so exciting, so fantastic, that I am bursting at the seams to tell you the essence of it right here, right now — but I'll be darned if I'll give it away!

No, it'll cost you ten smackers.

And if you buy it, and are a religious person, it wouldn't surprise me if you get down on your knees and "give thanks" after you've read it through, because this could be the absolute ultimate answer to your quest for wealth, personal fulfillment and general happiness.

Sure that sounds corny — UNTIL YOU EXPERIENCE THE SENSATION!

And now, I'll put my money where my mouth is, and that's right here:

GUARANTEE

If you do exactly as I suggest in the full explanation of this exclusive fortune-building concept (working at it part or full time - makes no difference), and if after 12 months of doing that you fail to gross $100,000.00 (that's one hundred thousand dollars) I will issue you my personal certified check for $1,000.00. Period. Dean F. V. Du Vall

And if you're wondering whether I can BACK UP that guarantee, read this excerpt from a letter I just received:

Dear Mr. Du Vall: "In its continual effort to extend coverage of the top companies in the United States, DUN & BRADSTREET is again compiling the MILLION DOLLAR DIRECTORY and our records indicate that your listing should be continued in our forthcoming edition." —W. H. Mantz, Editor

There is no more I can say to the smart reader of this advertisement. He knows what to do next!

BILTON PRODUCTS

Dean, I find it very hard to believe everything I've just read, but for ten bucks I'm certainly not going to risk missing out on THIS deal! Here is the $10.00 Rush me, "Don't Judge THIS book by its cover (or you'll be sorree!)" by return mail postpaid.

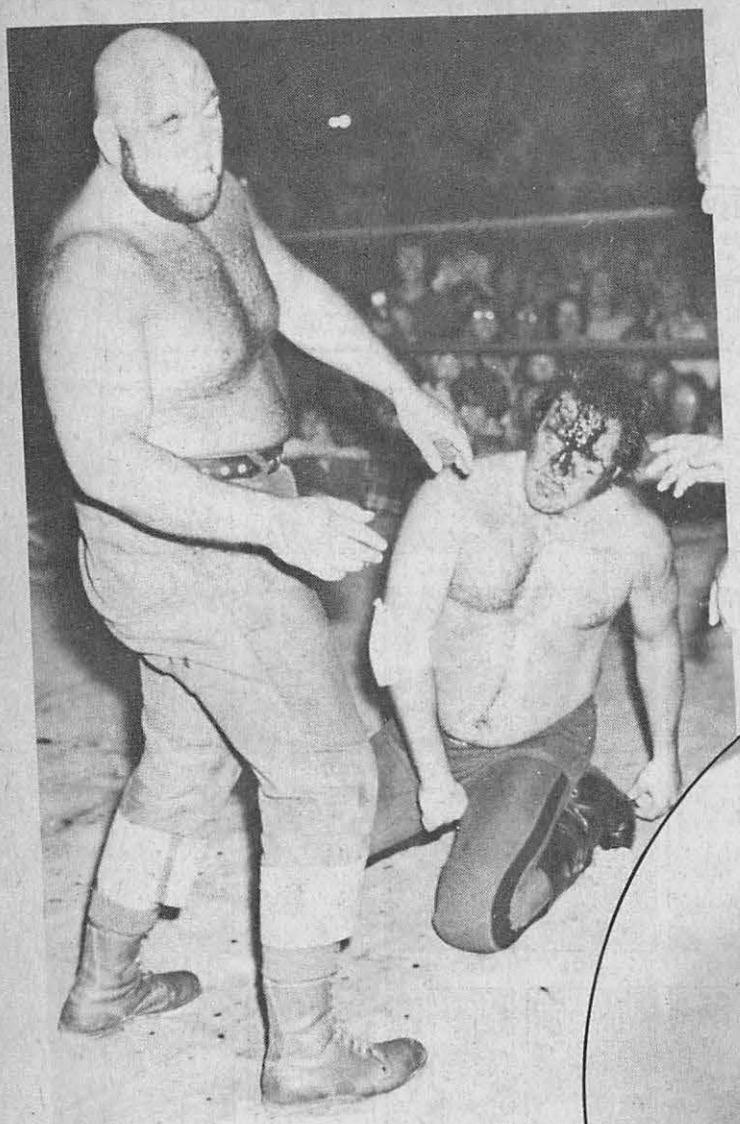
IS THERE A PLOT TO WIPE OUT JOE LEDUC?



Even though he's drenched in his own blood, Marcel Dubois (above) keeps right on swinging, hoping to floor Joe. Karl Von Shotz bites flesh from Joe's head (right). Von Shotz Dubois and Karl Von Hess are said to be plotting against Joe Leduc.

Exclusive Photos By Tony Lanza

Rumors of a three-man plot against him do not bother Joe LeDuc. Not in the least. And although the three men after his hide are dangerous, Joe only smiles and says "Bring 'em on!"

IS THERE A plot to have Joe Leduc "bumped off?"

"I'm beginning to think so," Leduc recently admitted. "It seems that every time I wrestle my opponents they cut me to shreds with foreign objects, hoping I'll bleed to death."

Joe may not be far from the truth. Through our investagative staff we've stumbled onto a plot that may be exactly what Joe is thinking about. It involves Kurt Von Hess, Marcel Dubois and Karl Von Shotz.

From what we've been able to unscramble, these three are very jealous of Leduc's success and plan to do something about it, so the spotlight, so to say, will fall on them.

"I can't fully deny that," Dubois said when called on the carpet. "I

ROCKY JOHN STANDS UP AMERIC

Rocky Johnson screams out in agony as The Sheik scratches Johnson's face. The Sheik has created a "Third World Plot" and hopes to enlist Rocky's aid. But Johnson flatly refuses to have anything to do with the Arab madman.

ROCKY JOHNSON HELD the letter at arm's length, not sure if he should dare open it. He knew who it was from, and that fact alone made him somewhat apprehensive. It was from The Sheik. Just seeing that name in the corner of the envelope scared Rocky.

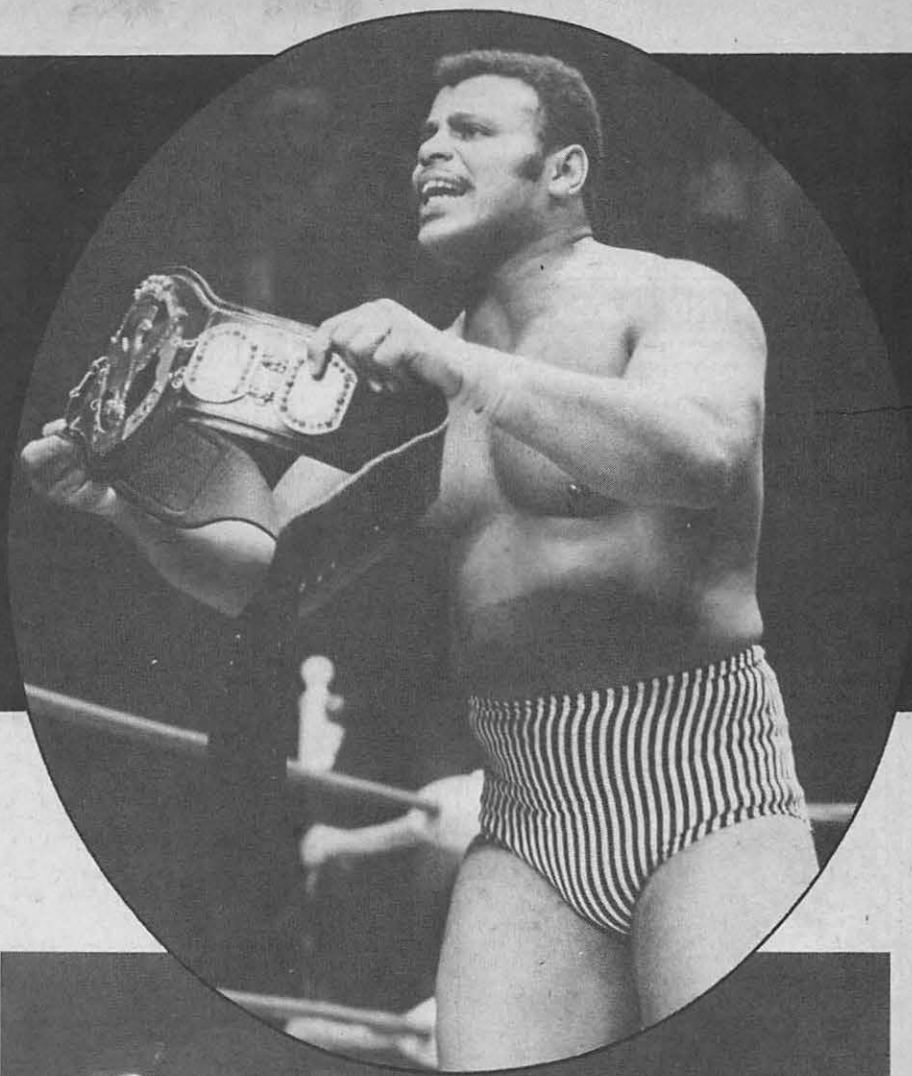
He lay the letter back on the table, hoping it would suddenly disappear from his sight. But that was not to happen. And as the letter lay there, Rocky became more and more curious about its contents. What could The Sheik possibly want from him? Why would that notorious wrestler want to write a letter to Rocky Johnson. Did it have to do with their upcoming match, or was some more evil portent contained therein?

Johnson's curiosity got the better of him. He seized the envelope and tore it open. He was immediately sorry he had done so.

Inside the letter was a message imploring Rocky Johnson to join Sheik's terrifying "Third World" plot, an evil scheme hatched by the notorious wrestler to gain power. Rocky had heard rumors

When Rocky Johnson battled The Sheik, there was more at stake than just winning or losing. Rocky's entire professional career—and the well-being of the United States—were both under attack!

SON FOR A!



about Sheik's plot, but he had never expected to be approached in the matter. His initial rage was quickly followed by great anger. How dare the Sheik think up such an evil plot! And how dare he ask Rocky to join him!

Rocky's anger was soon replaced by righteous indignation. He was irritated by this affront to his patriotism and loyalty. Johnson's thoughts turned to the scheduled match he had against The Sheik. It was time, Rocky thought, to teach the Arab a lesson he would not soon forget. It was also time to end this plot before it got too much out of hand. Rocky felt he was just the man to do this.

For the next two weeks, Johnson trained with a special intensity. There was more at stake here than just winning or losing a wrestling match. Johnson's honor and integrity were on the line.

Just before the match, Rocky gathered a group of select journalists in his dressing room to issue a statement. "There is a blight in wrestling," Johnson told the reporters. "That blight is called The Sheik. For years his tactics have caused numerous injuries to many fine athletes in this sport. He deserves to be banned from wrestling for that alone. But he has done more than that.

Wrestlers have to hold Rocky back from attacking Sheik after the match. Johnson went berserk and would have killed Sheik if the opportunity arose. Rocky is a good sportsman—except when Sheik is his opponent.

COLLECTOR'S CORNER

WRESTLING MAGAZINE

It was simply titled "WRESTLING." And it was the first serious attempt to establish a magazine devoted entirely to professional wrestling which had a regular frequency and a world-wide distribution. The five issues of WRESTLING magazine are perhaps the most sought-after collector's back issues now made available to you.

MARCH 1951—Human Side, Wrestling Whirl, How to Wrestle, New Faces, Popularity Ratings, Strangler Lewis' Life, Sumo Wrestling, Yukon Eric's Life, Wrestler vs. Boxer, Strong Arms, June Byers' Life, George Hackenschmidt vs Frank Gotch $30

BOXING & WRESTLING

After five issues, WRESTLING magazine changed its name to BOXING & WRESTLING. Continuing its high standard in wrestling, the addition of boxing stories made it one of the most popular sports magazines of the '50s. Some of the back issues listed in this ad can be obtained now by the general public for the first time in more than 25 years. As you would expect, supplies are very, very limited.

Some of the back issues in this ad have not been offered for sale for more than 25 years. All of these extremely rare magazines are from the personal collection of Stanley Weston, owner of the world's largest collection of wrestling memorabilia. This is indeed a once in a lifetime opportunity for the true collector to finally own these highly treasured but until now elusive editions. Obviously, the supplies of these issues are very limited, and they will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. It is for that reason we urge you to list substitute choices when you order. This will avoid time wasted writing back and forth should a particular issue be sold out. The prices quoted are based on the rarity of the issue and the amount of available copies. For fastest service, payment should be made by money order or certified check. While cash will be accepted, we cannot assume responsibility when it is sent through the mails. All sales are final and no exchanges will be made.

WRESTLING REVUE

WRESTLING REVUE (1959-1964) is thought to be the finest series of wrestling magazines ever published. These beautiful editions (all edited and published by Stanley Weston) set a standard by which all of today's wrestling magazines are judged. The magnificent back issues in this ad, many of which contain spectacular full-color inserts, have been unavailable to the public for more than 10 years. Supplies of these collector's treasures are very limited.

Fall 1959
The first issue, edited and published by Stanley Weston, established a new style for wrestling magazines. This classic first issue, printed on heavy, coated paper, contains eight pages of full color pictures, plus front and back covers, also in dazzling full color. Fifteen years ago, this extremely rare issue was being sold for $50 per copy, the same price we are offering it to you now $50

Most people suspected Wahoo McDaniel would try to kill Greg Valentine the next time the two men wrestled. When the match was over, everyone knew the only thing you can know about Wahoo McDaniel is that he is a very complex athlete

No one was more surprised at the tactics Wahoo used than Greg Valentine. Instead of using vicious maneuvers, McDaniel stayed completely scientific!

THE ARENA WAS sold out a week before the match. Fans filled the hall to see what everyone assumed would be a brawl. The opponents would be Wahoo McDaniel against a man he despises, Greg Valentine. When angered, Wahoo is reckless. When cornered, Valentine is the most ruthless rulebreaker around. With this combination, an explosion had to result.

Of course, that assumption was made by figuring Wahoo McDaniel is a man who does what he's supposed to. That's the worst assumption anyone can make. Wahoo is the most contradictory, surprising man ever to step through ring ropes. He can be expected to do the unexpected. And that's just what Wahoo proceeded to do.

"Kill him, Wahoo!" the fans screamed as McDaniel trotted into the arena. Wahoo just smiled. "Break him in two!" the fans yelled. Again, Wahoo smiled.

Then Valentine rushed into the arena. He didn't want to hear what the fans had to say to him. He despises the crowds and they return the favor. The insults flew fast and thick. Valentine retorted with an obscene hand gesture. All was going as everyone expected.

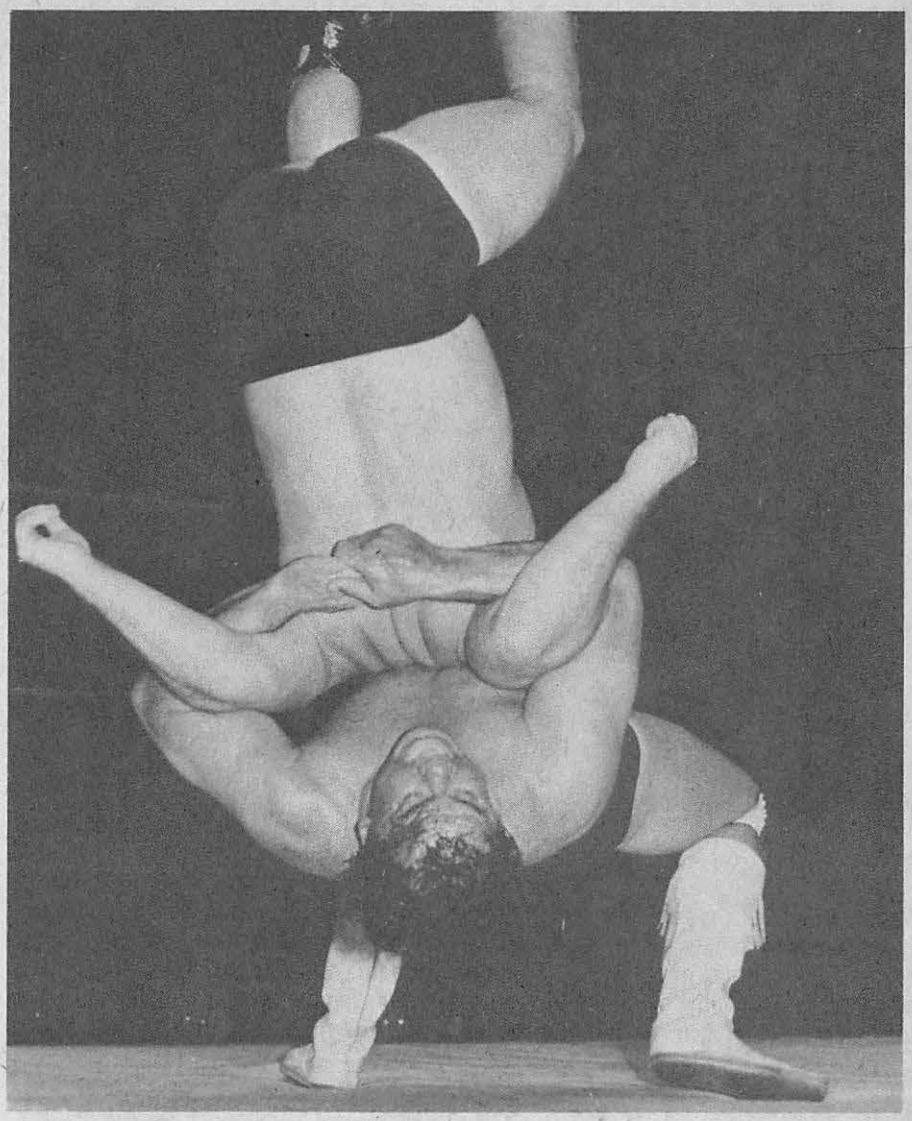
Then the bell rang and all bets were off. Greg came out ready to battle like a maniac. He'd been practicing to repulse foul maneuvers. Nothing McDaniel could do would penetrate his defenses. Everything had been taken into consideration, Greg supposed.

Immediately, Greg found himself lying on the canvas. McDaniel had decked him with a perfectly legal, superbly scientific legscissors. Valentine couldn't believe it. He barely escaped being pinned in the opening minute!

From then on, Wahoo dominated. Valentine grew more and more reckless, employing the cruelest tactics imaginable. It did him no good. McDaniel broke every assault, battered through any defense, and controlled the action. It was the most painfully frustrating night of Greg's life.

There were many moments when it seemed McDaniel could win the battle, yet he didn't follow up the advantage. He was playing with Valentine, humiliating the man with strictly scientific maneuvers. This kind of action can be dangerous; one false move can lead directly to disaster. Wahoo knew the risks and accepted them gladly. The victory was made that much sweeter the longer he could make Valentine squirm.



McDaniel had his wicked opponent confused throughout this most amazing bout. Valentine had expected Wahoo to use vicious maneuvers because he knew that McDaniel was looking for revenge. Wahoo surprised Greg and everyone else.

ING BOUT NIEL

Finally, after 25 minutes of brutal humiliation, Valentine tried a suicide maneuver, one guaranteed to bring either victory or defeat in less than a minute. Starting with an illegal modification of the legscissors, Greg tried to then catch Wahoo in an equally illegal version of the Boston crab. Valentine knew if either hold failed, he would be left defenseless.

The legscissors worked, bringing McDaniel to his knees. The Boston crab failed. Wahoo twisted free at the last moment, leaving Valentine wide open to a finishing maneuver. Showing a sense of humor, Wahoo captured Valentine in a perfectly legal Boston crab, just to show Greg how effective it can be to stick by the rules. The match was over and Wahoo had won it. He won it about as honestly as any man can wrestle in this day and age.

Valentine left the arena to catcalls and boos. The taunts of fans stung his pride. He cursed at them as he fled to the safety of his dressing room.

As for McDaniel, he was the happiest of all fellows. He greeted the press like a host at a party. He made sure they were comfortable in the dressing room while he answered questions. The first question, of course, was why he decided to wrestle scientifically against Valentine.

"Elementary, my dear reporter," Wahoo cackled, "the most obvious reason is I did it because I knew it would work. To prepare for a match, a man concentrates on certain things he expects his opponent to do. Valentine trained long and hard to turn back any illegal tactics of mine. He plotted strategies to use my moves against me. When Valentine walked into the ring tonight, he was prepared for any brawling maneuver I might use. What he wasn't prepared for—what he had no idea how to combat—was a scientific attack.

"Valentine may be dangerous, but he's not the most imaginative guy around. He can't create strategies out of thin air: He has to train hours in a gym devising plans. The man can't improvise if he's surprised. And he was doomed when I did everything he didn't expect."

Wahoo was then asked what will happen in his next match against Valentine.

"I'll win!" Wahoo declared to laughter, and then added, "Valentine will fall because I'll do something he least expects. Once more I'll get him in trouble and finish him off by surprising him. Before he ever gets into the arena, Greg will be a defeated man."

Don't be surprised if Wahoo predicts correctly. The man is capable of anything. □

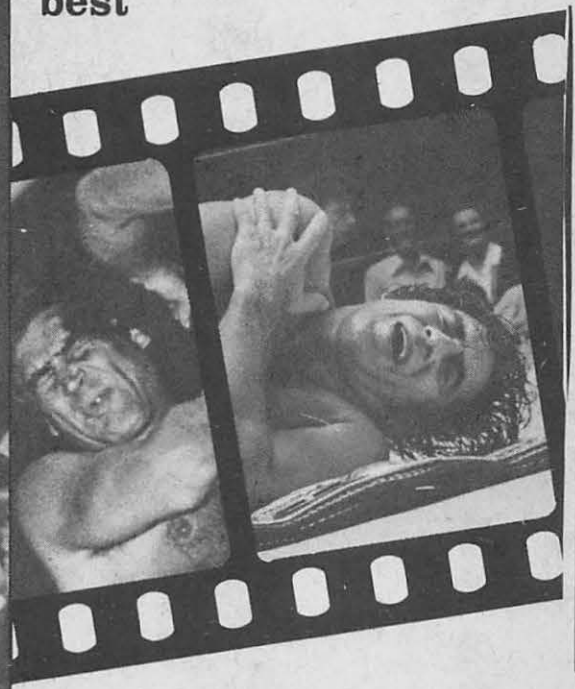
Professional wrestlers don't believe anyone can be too good. At least that was the prevailing theory before Jack Brisco tried to once again defeat Harley Race for the NWA title. Then all of wrestling saw why improvement isn't always for the best



Race retains his title in a recent match against Jack (left). Brisco has had some bad moments against the champion (above film strip) in recent battles.

WHY JACK BRISCO WILL NEVER BEAT HARLEY RACE AGAIN

THE CROWD CHEERED wildly. In the center of the arena, a young man stood tall and proud. A new NWA champion had been crowned. In the summer of 1973, wrestling's honor roll of champions welcomed Jack Brisco to its ranks.

The man sent down to defeat was Harley Race. The ex-champion walked back to the dressing room stunned. He had done everything right but lost. What happened didn't make sense. Brisco had violated all the rules of common sense but won. And he took away his title! Only the stupidest, most inexperienced rookie would try to do what Brisco accomplished. How do you defend against a guy who doesn't know the first thing about wrestling science?

That question was asked on a summer night in 1973. Since then, Jack Brisco lost his title to Terry Funk, who subsequently lost the belt to Harley Race. Once again, people turned to Jack Brisco to take Race's title. This time, Brisco turned away.

Each day, Jack's mailbox overflows with pleas to strive for the NWA title. Jack reads each one, then goes to his den for an hour. Friends say all he does is stare into space. Late at night, one can hear him restlessly pacing in his attic. It is there he keeps mementos of his championship years.

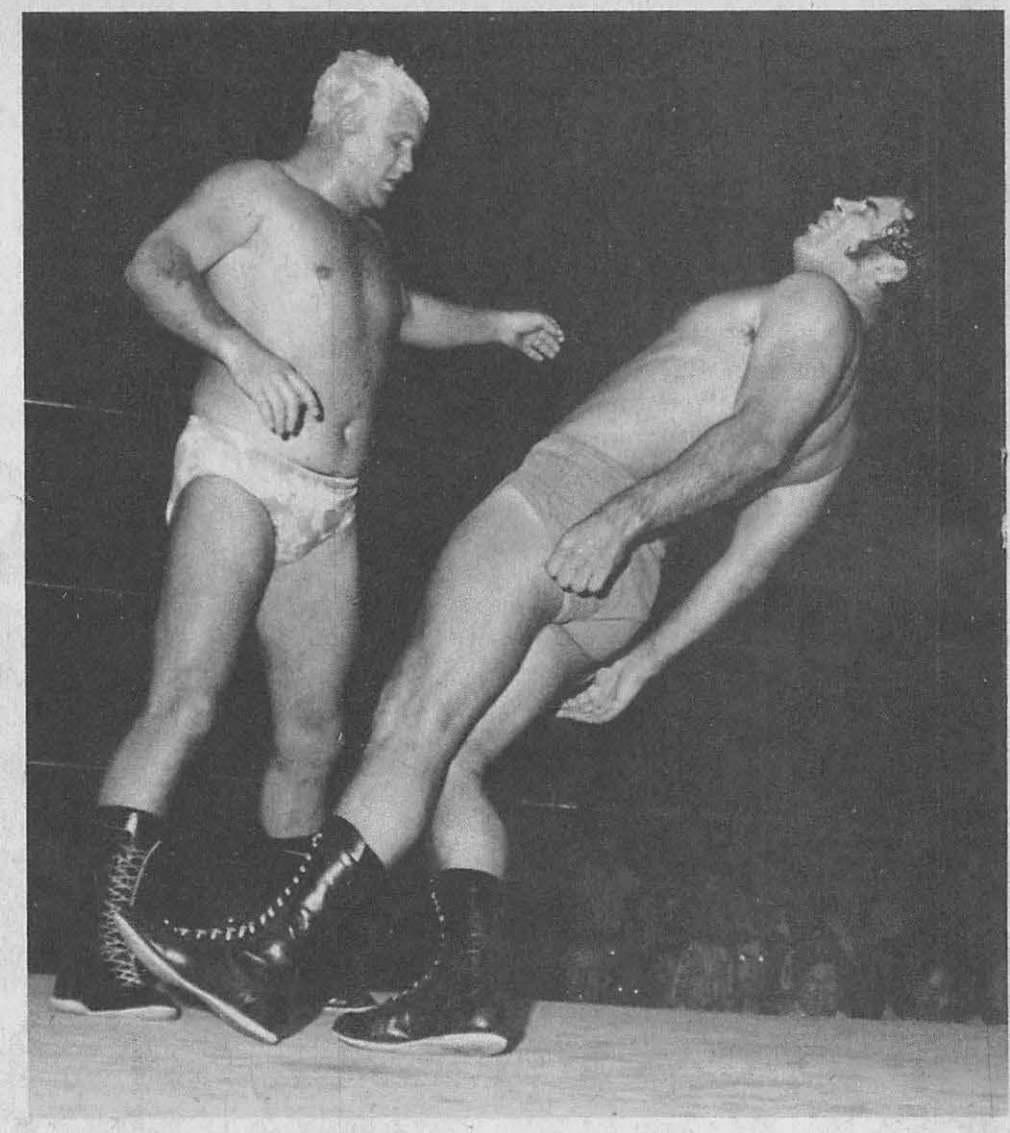
Friends say Jack has never seen films of his title-winning match. The cans of celluloid lie tucked away in a corner. Yet, when questioned about the match, Jack can recall every movement, analyze each nuance. He will also admit luck had a lot to do with it.

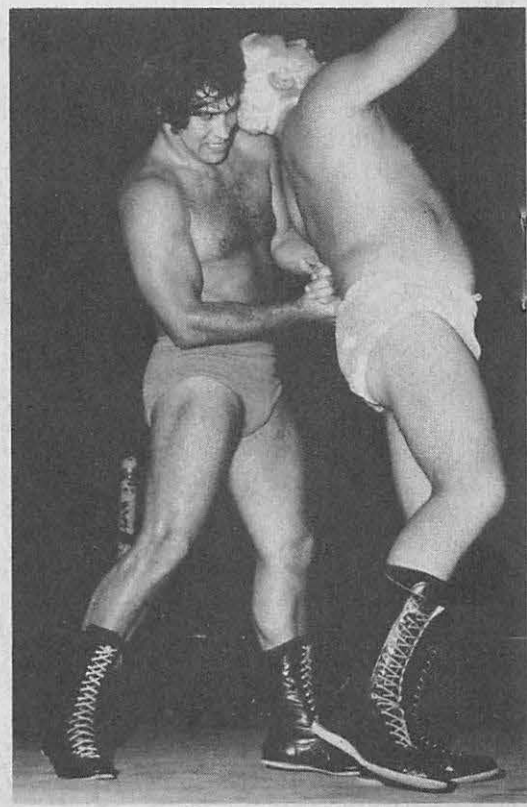
"In the situation I was in," Jack believes, "there are four moves a man should make. All will work at least 80% of the time. Race was expecting them and planning his counter-maneuver. To this day I don't know why I executed a reverse push. It may be the only time that maneuver ever worked in such a situation. I can think of 100 reasons why a reverse push is the worst move anyone could do in my position. Race can probably think of 100 more. But I did it and through some miracle it worked. Race was left open to the figure-four leglock, which led to his defeat.

"It will never work again. It can't. After I had success with it, other wrestlers tried the same thing. Every one of them lost the match. Every single one without exception. So when people expect me to take Race's title because I did it once before, they don't realize how I won it. In a world of chance, everyone can expect to be lucky just once. Only a fool counts on being lucky twice. I'm no fool."

Friends say this is merely Jack's way of avoiding the responsibilities and pressures of a championship. As far as Jack is concerned, the worst thing that ever happened to him was Race winning the belt. That put the spotlight on Brisco, the last thing Jack wants.



Photos from the classic match in which Jack took the title from Race in 1973 (above and below). Jack may never be able to repeat his success.



"Jack doesn't want to be anybody's hero," brother Jerry explains. "All he wants is respect. He appreciates the fans, happily accepts their cheers, but he doesn't need them. He's not like Dusty Rhodes, who requires the fans' support to do his best. Jack is a reserved kind of guy who's most comfortable within the ring ropes. In olden times, he'd be the last knight to accept a lady's handkerchief as his battle banner. He cares less about glory than any man on earth.

"He hates it when people expect things of him. I believe

Jack can take Harley Race nine out of 10 times. Everyone knows he was lucky to take Race's title the first time, but he earned that luck. Harley lost because at that point in the match he was a beaten, battered and overwhelmed champion. At that point in the match, Jack could have finished Race off with no trouble at all. Anything would have worked. In fact, anything did work.

"Jack is a perfectionist, though. He can't take any joy in something that isn't just right. I think the reverse push was a one-time-only brilliant inspiration. Jack can do that because he's great. There will be other inspirations, other victories. But Jack hates it when people expect him to do something. He's an independent guy. If he thinks people want him to do something, he'll do just the opposite to prove he's his own man.

"Jack has wrestled Race for the title and will do so again. Sooner or later, history will repeat itself. Jack will become the NWA champ again."

However, Race is lasting much longer in his second reign than he did in his first. Jack's recent matches against him have been great exhibitions of wrestling virtuosity, yet something is missing in Jack's attack. It's as if Brisco doesn't want to finish off Race. A few friends say that's exactly what's happening.

"He's not doing it purposely," Dusty Rhodes avers, "but I think Jack subconsciously doesn't want to take the title from Race again. He wants someone to defeat Harley, and then Jack will really go after the new champion. He wants to go in the record books as defeating two different champions. If he takes Race now, it'll just seem like he can win the title from only one man. Jack thinks about what people will believe 100 years from now. What it says in the history books is very important to him.

"Sure I know he was lucky against Race the first time. But if you believe Jack doesn't think he can take Race, you're out of your mind. Take my word for it."

What Jack thinks isn't as important as what he does. Wrestling against Race shows him doing things differently than usual. It's almost as if he's attempting to defeat Race as another wrestler. It makes sense if you believe Rhodes is right about his friend. If Jack does defeat Harley a second time, the history books can say Brisco didn't repeat his past triumph but succeeded in an entirely different way. However, according to Paul Jones, this means Brisco will never defeat Race.

"No man," Jones says, "can change styles and still be successful. To be a great wrestler, you must develop an instinctive rhythm. It's all variations on a pattern. When the rhythm works, a man is at his best. To defeat a man, all you really have to do is disrupt that rhythm. Of course, that's incredibly difficult, especially with a top grappler.

"But Brisco, by trying to be different, he's doing Race's

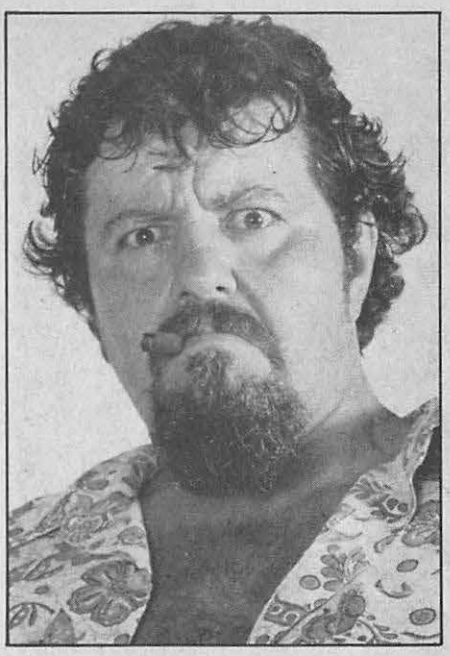
THE MAN WHO WANTS KEN PATERA AND IVAN PUTSKI TO DESTROY EACH OTHER



A MAN SITS alone in a quiet room. To any casual observer, there is nothing unusual or wicked happening. Those who know the identity of this man realize evil lurks in the air.

The man is Lou Albano, manager of some of the cruelest grapplers in the world. Things haven't been going well for Albano. One man is taking on his stable and battering them out of title contention. Albano's demon is named Ivan Putski.

How to be rid of Putski? That's a problem to ponder. Albano searched his vicious brain for a solution. Every answer called for a sacrifice. The man who would destroy Putski would be destroyed in the process. That's a heavy penalty to pay. However, no sacrifice could exact more damage than Putski's mauling of Albano's grapplers.

Money is the only thing that matters to Lou Albano. He wants Ivan Putski destroyed, because the Polish grappler is defeating his wrestlers. He's willing to sacrifice Ken Patera to achieve his goal. Will these two wrestlers maim each other to please Lou Albano?

So Lou Albano chose a sacrificial lamb; or perhaps he would be better called a sacrificial lion. One man was picked to end his own career while ending Putski's. There was only one man capable of doing this job. He is also the one man Albano doesn't enjoy complete control over. Ken Patera is his own man. Therefore, Ken Patera must be the sacrifice.

Naturally, Albano didn't announce his intentions to the world. He craftily hid his motives behind a smokescreen of ravings. "Ken Patera will defeat Ivan Putski," Lou proclaimed, "because Ken is the greatest wrestler in the world. Once he finishes with Putski, removing that Polish blight from wrestling, he'll go on to become WWWF champion. That's an Albano promise!" All wrestling is only too familiar with the value of an Albano vow. Stock in Consolidated Viking Ships has more value.

See how they destroy each other: Ivan has Patera in a vise-like headlock (above) left). Ken uses his powerful leg to smash a weakened Putski (above right). Ivan has Ken begging for a little mercy (below). This is just what Lou Albano wants.

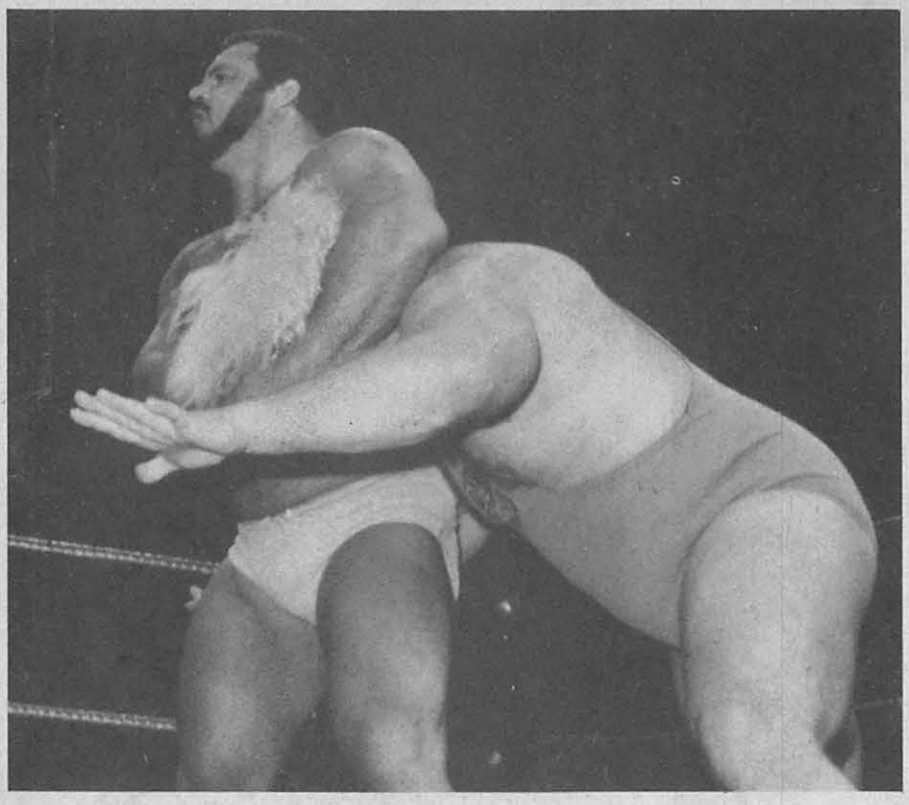
How did Albano's plan for double destruction become public? In truth, only a few people have discovered it. If one studies the schedule Albano has devised for Patera, there can be no other conclusion. Albano has put Patera and Putski on a collision course sure to destroy them both.

If observers can understand Albano's plot, surely Putski and Patera have figured out what's happening. Perhaps they do, although neither will admit it. Pride is more important to both of them than personal safety. Lou Albano knew that, which is why he didn't bother to cover his tracks.

"Putski couldn't destroy me," Patera asserts, "no matter what. I'm better than he can ever hope to be. He's clumsy, stupid, and not half as strong as people think. Even if Albano was out to get me, and that's impossible, he knows Putski wouldn't be the man.

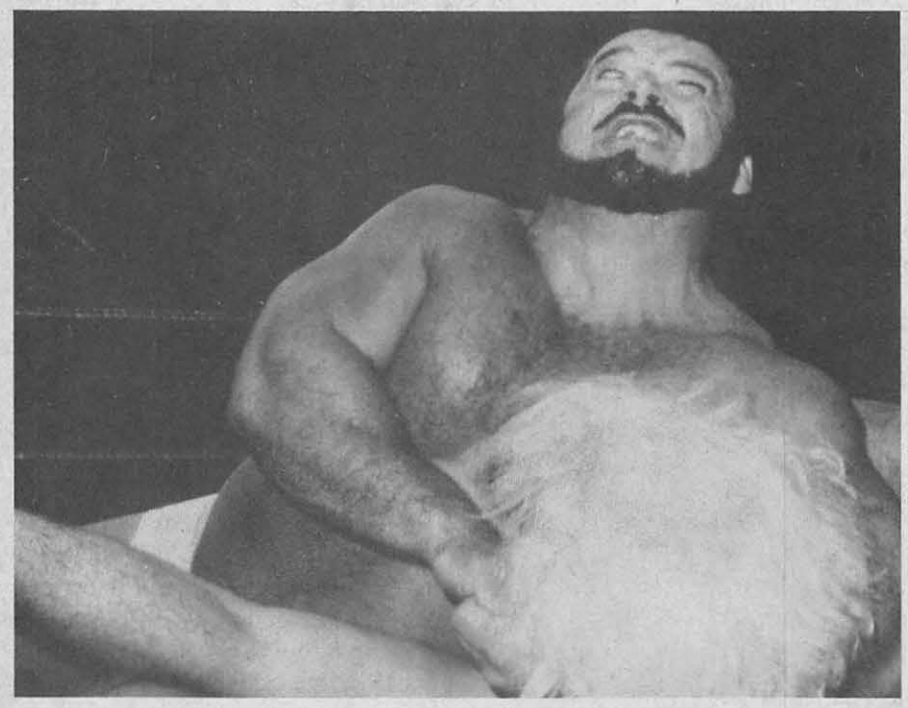
"Sure Lou wants Putski run out of the WWWF. Everyone does. The clown is a loser masquerading as crowd pleaser. I'm honored Lou thinks I'm the best man to send Putski to oblivion. There's no way Albano could think Putski would destroy me at the same time. I'm too valuable to Albano for him to risk me."

Too valuable for Albano to risk? No



Ken Patera comes down hard on Ivan, causing Putski a great deal of pain. Ivan was able to recover quickly and launch his own assault. This is just what Albano wants to happen!

The battles between Ivan and Ken have been brutal affairs (above and below), with each man intent on destroying the other. This is all part of Albano's evil plan—he has set up both men on this collision course. Hopefully, this will all end before Albano's plan has a chance to work!



wonder Patera can't see the plain truth. His ego refuses to let him believe any manager would willingly sacrifice him. This pride is the major reason Albano wants him finished as a grappler.

Everyone knows Patera is unlike Albano's other wrestlers. Ken has a mind of his own. There has been friction between the two since the beginning. People have long wondered when this uneasy alliance would collapse. Albano has tolerated much from Ken's independent spirit. Albano is publicly punishing the only partner who ever dared to confront him. If Patera is destroyed, other Albano grapplers will pay heed to this example.

Putski could turn down the Patera challenges. No wrestler could be obligated to fulfill this schedule. No one would blame Putski for throwing the dates back in the promoters' faces. Many of his friends have begged him to do just that. Putski has signed every contract offered him.

The Polish mat star would rather die than back down from a Patera challenge. Death cannot be ruled out as a possibility in this situation. Putski knows this. Each contract signing might be his death warrant.

As these two proud athletes clash, one man smiles cruelly in the background. Lou Albano, like a demented puppet master, is pulling the strings guaranteed to lead to disaster. People watch in horror as his plan appears to be succeeding.

The first few matches of the campaign have already occured. They have been ugly, brutal brawls. Both men have suffered huge gashes and twisted limbs. Lately, Putski walks around with clenched teeth as if trying not to show pain. Patera used to be a guy with many different interests, going all over the place. These days, he spends his time between matches only in arenas and motel rooms.

Slowly but surely, both men are approaching destruction. They are trapped as Lou Albano's victims. Two superb athletes, one scientific and the other a rulebreaker, are doomed by the manager's evil genius. Both are too proud to stop the carnage. □

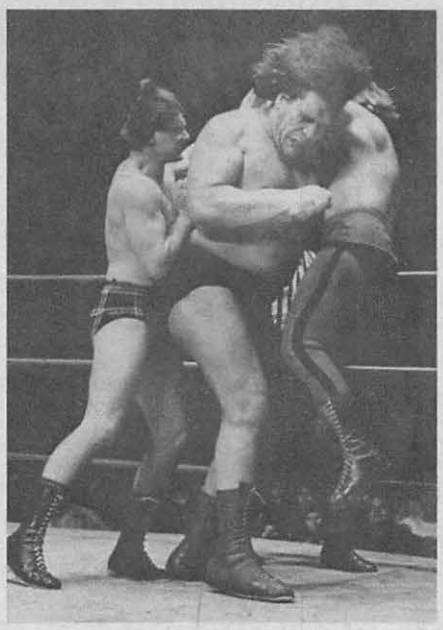
PITCH-BLACK DARKNESS, eerie silence. A tomb is like this. Have I suffered the worst of all possible fates, Andre the Giant wondered. Have I been buried alive? The hulking gargantuan tried to get up. He couldn't move. Panic stricken, he did the only thing possible: The man screamed for his life.

In less than a minute, light flooded the room. A woman dressed in white, a very temporal angel, came to his aid. The nurse let him examine his surroundings, a hospital room. Then she let him understand he was in traction. Struggling was the most self-destructive thing he could do. Andre lay limply on the bed. It all came back to him.

It had been a handicap match. His opponents had been Rock Riddle and Roddy Piper. All had been going well until Piper and Riddle had doubleteamed him. Then he remembered nothing else. Somehow, he had gone from the arena to traction.

"How did I get here?"

"Ambulance," the nurse asked,



When Andre the Giant wrestled against Rock Riddle and Roddy Piper (above), many people feared it would be his last match. Indeed, Andre seemed to be in so much pain (right), it appeared he would never rise from the canvas. But Andre surprised everyone the next day when he announced he had suffered no major injuries because of the battle!

hoping humor would be the proper bedside manner. Andre tried to smile but it couldn't penetrate the fear. So the nurse answered seriously, "You became unconscious during the match. I can give you the medical name for what happened, but it won't mean anything to either of us. In plain English, you were hit in the back of the neck, somehow injuring a major artery to the brain. Injury isn't the right word. The flow of blood was momentarily halted. That acounted for you losing consciousness. If the artery had been injured, you'd be dead."

"Can I wrestle again?"

"I believe so, but you'll have to ask the doctors to be sure. They'll explain more about the whole thing."

Andre didn't sleep any more that night. Could the nurse be believed? In fact, was his career finished? How badly had he been hurt? The brain, the brain, the brain, there had been an injury to the brain. Would he be able to walk again? Was his motor co-ordination destroyed? Was he crippled? Was he doomed?

Andre saw the sunrise that morning wondering how many more times he would greet the dawn. Hour after hour after hour crawled by. The morning nurse brought him medication and breakfast—but no new information. She did tell him not to worry. She must have been kidding.

It was almost noon when the doctor arrived. After waiting all that time, his mind filled with horrors, Andre found himself wishing the doctor had never come. At least while he waited there was hope. If the doctor had bad news, hope would be gone.

"There will be no lasting effects," the doctor began, allowing Andre to relax for the first time in what seemed an eternity. "You'll be just as good a wrestler as you always have been. However, I must warn you there were moments when it looked like your relatives would be making funeral arrangements. You're a very lucky man.

"Let me tell you what happened and how it can be prevented. Your opponent, Roddy Piper, yanked back your head quickly, squeezing an artery. Now this should have been no more than a momentary stoppage of blood, causing almost indiscernable weakness. However, the blood stopped for a dangerously long time.

"What has been happening is a very gradual deterioration of the neck muscle near the artery. Due to a very complicated situation, this leaves the artery exposed to danger. Of course, there is only a one in 1,000 chance a maneuver could be done that would bring on this situation. Most people would be vulnerable to this, only they never get in a position where it could happen.

"However, your profession makes you liable for this type of injury. Now, I don't want to seem to be saying you'll suffer this often. You could probably

CRU

A cage match against Mad Dog Vachon is one of the most dangerous challenges any wrestler can face. Crusher sought this match because he knows a man must take risks to realize his ambitions. And Crusher's ambition is to drive Mad Dog Vachon from wrestling!

CRUSHER HAS SURVIVED too many matches for him to have to worry about one more. The man is a professional. He does the job he has to do with the best of his ability. He makes no excuses and asks for none. Victory or defeat is something he has learned to live with.

The steel cage in the middle of the arena didn't bother Crusher. It wasn't the first one he'd seen, nor would it be the last. A professional, he checked out the cage for possible flaws: a jagged piece of metal, a loose coupling, anything that might gain an advantage or cost a match. Crusher took more than an hour to examine the cage. He always does.

SHER CAGES MAD DOG

Blood obscuring the features of his face, Crusher nevertheless pounds away at Mad Dog Vachon (left) and then sends his victim hurtling across the canvas (above).

He then went to his dressing room. Reporters asked him if he is worried about his opponent, Mad Dog Vachon. They asked him a lot of questions. Crusher answered them as he has done many times before. There's nothing new anyone can ask him. Crusher was polite throughout. He is a professional.

As he responds, Crusher devotes his real attention to his equipment. Everything he will use is scrutinized for safety and comfort. He has to lace his boots eight times before feeling the proper combination of comfort and support. Six times is about the ususal number for this ritual. Cage matches demand extra attention.

Crusher continues to answer questions while he does stretching exercises to loosen up, break a sweat. He wants his body working at optimum efficiency from the very first moment. He knows Mad Dog Vachon doesn't give a man much time to play around.

Outside the dressing room, fans cheer or boo the action taking place. Still, one senses an impatience as the fans anticipate the cage match. No one needs to tell them about this match. Many had bought their tickets a month in advance. All know of Crusher's rugged skill and unequaled courage. Everyone has seen Mad Dog's savagery tear an opponent to pieces. One man will end the evening in glory. The other could easily end it in the hospital.

The time came. The cage stood ugly and tall beneath arena lights. First Crusher entered the field of battle through a door in the cage. A minute later, Vachon followed. The door was closed. The bell sounded. The match began.

Vachon knew better than to be reckless in the bout's opening moments. Crusher knows better than to be reckless at any time. The two opponents approached each other cautiously. This match, made in anger, would be settled in cold rage.

As the men locked together, one couldn't help but think of the circumstances which had forced this pair into combat. Were the words of Vachon's challenge still stinging Crusher's ears? Did Mad Dog expect Crusher to accept the cage match? Did either man want to be trapped within this cage?

Reflection stopped as the battle grew ferocious. Powerful bodies crashing against steel made the cage walls shudder. These veterans use every maneuver to punish their foe. The action became a blur of armlocks, leglocks, chops, flips, and slams. Both men began to show the effects of wear and tear.

Finally, a series of illegal maneuvers gave the advantage to Vachon. Crusher stumbled back weakly, unable to defend himself. With killer instinct pushing him onward, Mad Dog pounded away at his increasingly weakening foe.

Crusher sank to the canvas. All Vachon needed now for victory was to climb over the cage. His hands grabbed the grilling and his feet found supports. He began to climb.

Mad Dog was about half way up the edge, seemingly assured of victory, when Crusher got to his feet. Moving with a professional's determination, Crusher leaped into the air and pounded his fist into the small of Vachon's back. Mad Dog stiffened as if elecrocuted and toppled to the canvas. Within an instant, Crusher was on him.

The battle raged within, this time Crusher gaining the upper hand. Vachon grew more cruel, more treacherous, more savage. Nothing worked. Crusher retained control of the battle. When Vachon crumpled to the canvas, it was as much out of despair as agony.

Crusher climbed onto the cage. Slowly, for his arms and legs ached, he hoisted himself up the steel barrier. Finally, he got to the top. Wobbly, dizzy, exhausted, he leaped to the concrete floor below. He landed safe and sound and victorious.

In the cage, where many people feel he belongs, Mad Dog Vachon remained. □ Crazed Bugsy McGraw kicks Dom DeNucci as the popular mat star tries to get back in the ring. Why did the fans cheer Bugsy on for doing this to an athlete whom they admire and respect?

THERE IS NO reason on earth why the fans should love Bugsy McGraw. The man tortures his opponents, insults everyone in sight, and is managed by the notorious Lou Albano. Any one of these things should make him despised. All together they should make him the most hated guy in town.

That is why it sounds strange to hear fans scream for Bugsy to win, even against their favorites! Cries of "Sick Power!" echo throughout the arena as Bugsy battles in his odd and dangerously brutal way. Trying to discover Bugsy's attraction to his many loyal followers is a difficult task; few fans are sure why they cheer this strangely unique grappler. It takes long and arduous interviewing to discover the common reasons for Bugsy's popularity.

The most common reason behind this phenomenon, acknowledged by fans after long questioning, is Bugsy has become the perfect hero for the 1970s!

"These are crazy times," explains Sol Walchinsy, of Brookline, Massachusetts, "and Bugsy says it all. There's no sense in anything anymore. I don't know where I'm going next. Tomorrow terrifies me.

"Bugsy has the perfect solution—craziness. What does it matter to a madman what happens next or who commands him to do something? McGraw does what he wants when he wants. He doesn't care about rules. Hell, he didn't make them up. What does he care about what threatened him, but the referee could not be found. Eric and George then came into the arena, and George still had the rope in his hands. Nelson tried to wrest the rope from Cannon in order to show it to the referee.

But Cannon would not let go of the rope. He ordered Eric the Red to assist him from inside the ring, and the two of them started beating the defenseless Royal. The special police had to be brought in to break up the brawl.

When order was finally restored, the match got underway. The first few minutes were not too eventful—Erick spent most of the time trying to avoid any contact with Nelson. Finally, Royal got fed up. He launched a full attack against his opponent.

While Eric was leaning against the ropes, Nelson dived towards the large grappler and forced him to the mat. Eric tried to wriggle free, but Royal was holding him tightly. For a moment it looked like the match was going to go to Royal very quickly.

Then George Cannon stepped in. He climbed through the ropes and dragged Royal off of his wrestler. Nelson was quite shocked by this surprise attack and was momentarily unable to defend himself. Cannon seized this opportunity—he dragged Royal out of the ring and onto the concrete floor.

At this point, Royal expected the referee to disqualify Eric because of Cannon's interference. The referee said nothing. Seeing that he was getting away with his tactics, Cannon took out the rope in his pocket and began to strangle Nelson. Then the referee stopped the action, just barely noting what was happening.

Royal tried to climb back inside the ring, but Eric came over and clubbed Nelson over the head with his huge bone. Royal reeled backwards to the floor. The referee still said nothing.

Somehow, Nelson was able to recover his stance. He quickly climbed back inside, determined now to put an end to the brutal tactics of Eric the Red and George Cannon. With renewed energy, he grabbed Eric and started punching him with a powerful right hook. Eric screamed in agony. Cannon started climbing back over the ropes. Royal increased the intensity of the punches.

Then Nelson made a very bad mistake. He tried to butt Eric's stomach with his head. Eric knocked his opponent over the head with the bone again. Then he picked up the stunned Royal and swung him high in the air.

As Royal was coming down, he grabbed one of Eric's legs and sent the giant grappler sprawling to the floor. This infuriated Eric so much, he took out his bone and started repeatedly clubbing Nelson over the head and in the stomach. Then the referee stepped in and finally disqualified Eric the Red.

Cannon screamed at the referee, but nothing could change the decision. The duo of George Cannon and Eric the Red stormed out of the arena and refused to talk to anyone.

After he had recovered from the match, Nelson talked with reporters. "This match was unfair. Not only did Eric the Red use illegal tactics, but Cannon interfered for him. All I know is that I'm lucky to be alive."

Royal went on to say he would be willing to wrestle Eric again, but this time he wants two rules enforced: Eric not be allowed to have the bone with him, and George Cannon stay as far from the arena as possible. "If I am going to grapple with someone by myself, it is only fair he wrestles alone too!" □

THE ★ ORIGINAL WRESTLING REVUE ★

All the back issues of the ORIGINAL WRESTLING REVUE listed for sale in this advertisement were edited and published by Stanley Weston, who founded Wrestling Revue in 1959 and sold his interests in the magazine in 1964. These extremely rare back issues have not been available to the public in almost 15 years, although many have been sold by private collectors for as much as 75 dollars per copy. This is a rare opportunity for those of you who collect and treasure truly fine wrestling magazines of great historic importance, at a price you can afford. Most of these issues contain magnificent, full color pin up portraits of the world's greatest wrestlers, some of whom are still active. The supply of these collector's treasures is very limited, so order today and avoid disappointment.

ALL SALES FINAL. NO EXCHANGES OR REFUNDS WILL BE MADE.

RETURN OF THE SHEIK

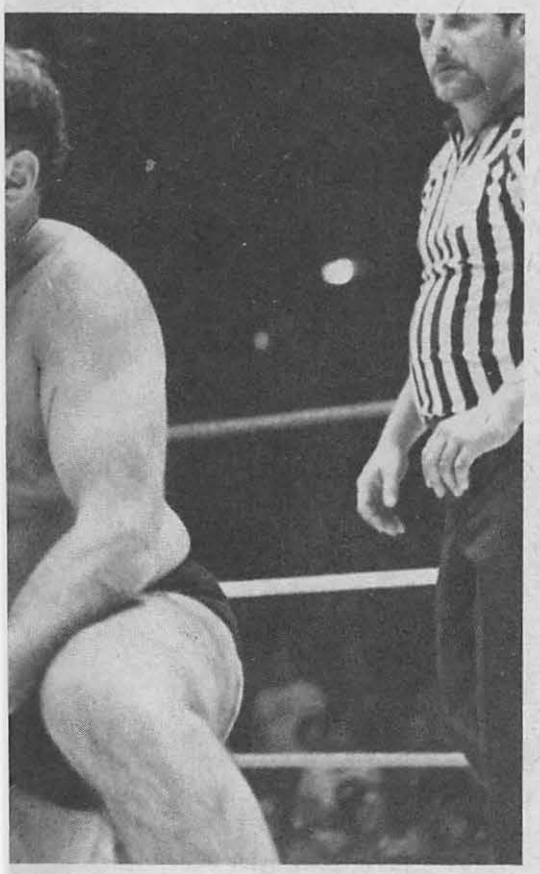
Sheik began by slowly approaching Johnny, carefully seeking an open opportunity to attack. Rougeau became confused by this procedure. But still Sheik waited for the right moment. Rougeau decided to rush Sheik instead of waiting any further. This was the moment Sheik had waited for. He stood poised while Rougeau began his rush. Then, with his arms outstretched, Sheik stopped the assault as Rougeau bounced off Sheik's massive hands and landed on the canvas. Sheik ran over to his opponent to take control.

But Johnny was too quick for Sheik. He jumped up and grabbed Sheik's chin. Then he landed a composure and scrambled to his feet. Again he rushed toward Rougeau, this time catching Johnny by the stomach. Rougeau went sailing to the floor. Sheik tried to force Johnny to stay down, but Rougeau was able to squirm free. Sheik grabbed Johnny again and shoved him against the ropes. Then he hurled his whole weight against Rougeau, forcing Johnny's head between the ropes. Then Sheik began choking Rougeau with the rope.

The referee broke the two wrestlers up and sent them back to opposite corners. When the action resumed, no one knew what to expect, especially Johnny Rougeau.



barrage of punches on Sheik's face, opening cuts on his forehead and around his eyes. Then to complete the assault, Rougeau punched Sheik in the stomach, slightly opening the sutures.

The referee stepped in and called a halt to the match because Sheik was bleeding badly. An Arabian curse came forth from Sheik. He wanted to continue the match, claimng he would beat Rougeau if given the chance. But just at that moment, the team of doctors attending Sheik rushed in to help their patient back to the dressing room and administer medication to the wounds.

A few minutes later one of the doctors emerged from the dressing room and made a statement for the waiting press. "The Sheik is resting now," the physician began. "It is unfortunate the match had to end this way. It is our considered opinion Sheik is in good physical condition. We do not feel he must be restrained from wrestling. In a week, all effects of the operation should be cleared up, and he will be able to return to his work full-time. We have told him this, and he said he wished to have a rematch against Rougeau to determine the real winner of this match.

"It is our opinion Sheik will win the rematch." □

Fitness is my business

I RECOMMEND BULLWORKER® BECAUSE IT'S FAST, IT'S EASY AND IT REALLY WORKS!

Bob Breton says "I earn my living by keeping top executives in peak physical shape. My clients insist on maximum results with minimum time and effort. I recommend Bullworker because it's fast, it's easy and it really works."

Most men know they're not getting enough exercise to keep their bodies in shape.

Ten years as a fitness coach has taught me one important fact: most men will not stick with a training program long enough for it to do them any good, unless the training is fast, easy and shows results right away.

Bullworker gets a top score on all three counts:

—it's fast: each exercise takes only 7 seconds and the complete workout can be done in about five minutes

—it's easy: any man between 15 and 65 in good general health can perform the full program without getting tired

—you see your results right from the very first day on the built-in Power-meter gauge. After two to three weeks of regular training, most men can expect to measure an extra inch or two of muscle on their shoulders, chest and biceps—and an inch or two less flab around the middle.

And that's just the start: there are specialized exercises for building-up or trimming-down any part of your body you want to. What's more since Bullworker training is progressive, you perform better each time. Yet the training always seems easy since with every workout your strength increases by about 1%—that's an increase of up to 50% in just three months, and I've seen many men go on to double and even triple their strength. For my money, Bullworker is the most advanced home trainer on the market. I use it and recommend it to any man who wants to get back in top shape fast.

ROCKY JOHNSON

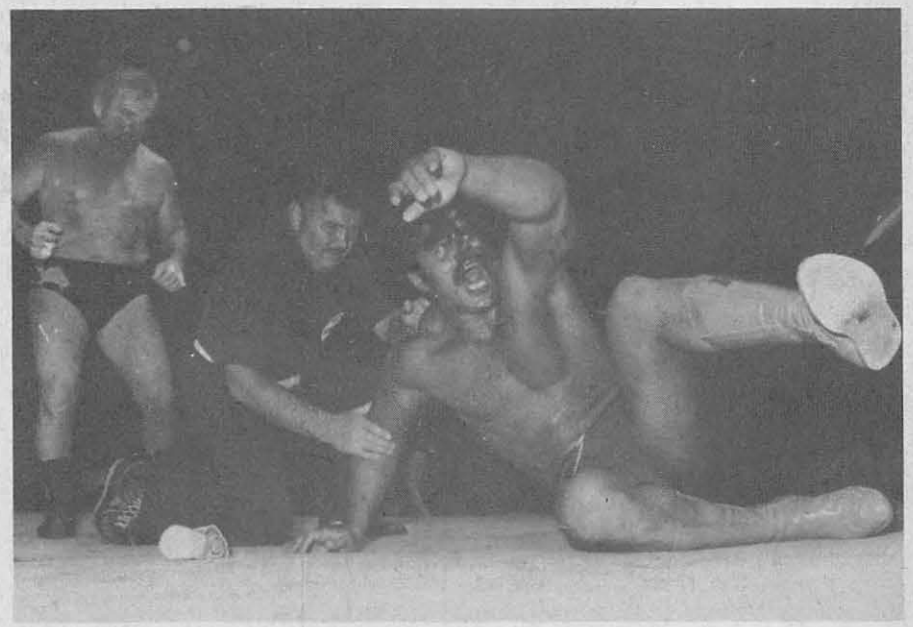
Sheik tears away at Rocky with a pencil (above). He bloodies Johnson's face (below) and Rocky tries to scurry out of danger. Sheik keeps up his attack leaving Rocky little chance to retaliate.



"In my hand is a letter I received from The Sheik two weeks ago. In it he outlines a horrifying plot involving third world peoples. His plans call for an uprising of these people behind one leader—Sheik! I find this despicable! And tonight I hope to end Sheik's plot once and for all.

"I want it made clear to you members of the press that I will have nothing to do with Sheik's plan. I find what he has suggested is deplorable. I don't know how many wrestlers he has already enlisted in this scheme of his. I do know that if I hear any man has aligned himself with Sheik in this mission, he will have to answer to me. If I have to I will stand up alone for this country! It is my civic duty to do this. I will not allow The Sheik to mock our land, our principles, our ideals. He will not be allowed to get away with his plans!"

The reporters silently left Rocky's dressing room and headed for the arena. They had all heard about The Sheik's plot already. But this was the first time someone had openly come out and denounced the plan. They all admired Johnson's courage.

But courage alone would not be enough to sustain Rocky Johnson in a match against The Sheik. That notorious grappler was especially vicious that night; he was upset that Rocky had not accepted his offer to join in the plot.

For the first 15 minutes, Rocky was able to control his opponent. Then The Sheik started unleashing some of his more savage tactics. Soon both men were bloody messes, especially since The Sheik had used a foreign object to open cuts on Johnson's forehead. Rocky had grabbed the object from his opponent and proceeded to do the same.

A wild brawl ensued. The action spilled out of the ring and onto the concrete floor. The referee had no choice but to disqualify both men. But it was clear that if the action had been allowed to continue, Rocky Johnson would have been the winner.

After the match, Johnson again spoke to reporters. "I sincerely hope," he said, "The Sheik learned something tonight. I'm sorry the match had to end the way it did. But maybe now Sheik will stop trying to recruit people for his wicked crusade.

"An end to The Sheik's career is in order. If I can't be the one to do so, I hope there is some wrestler who can. He has gone too far, and caused too many problems. He must be stopped. He will be stopped. It's for the good of wrestling and for the good of America!" □

EAT YOUR HEART OUT

wrestling—probably the best in professional sports. An athlete's legs are the first to go. Sammartino's are gone; mine are wonderful.

Of course, being the most handsome man in wrestling is not my greatest accomplishment. My wrestling genius, making me the most brilliant manager in wrestling history, has made people tend to forget I'm also the greatest wrestler who has ever lived. Only the demands by my wrestlers keep me from taking the championship away from that clod Sammartino. And don't think Sammartino doesn't know it!

Bruno the bungler would give all the pasta in Italy to have one-tenth of the talent I've got. My style is fantastic, my skills are legendary, my cunning is unequaled anywhere in the world. I am to wrestling what Da Vinci is to painting, or Sinatra is to singing.

Watch me in combat. I'm so

wonderful, so fabulous, so fantastic, and so remarkable it could make a grown man cry with joy. My maneuvers are impeccable, my holds are devastating, and my defenses are perfect. In all things, I'm the greatest.

It is pathetic to see Sammartino watch me wrestle. His stupid mouth hangs open in wonder—he can't believe anyone can be so much better than he is.

I am the Captain. I am wonderful. Bruno Sammartino, eat your heart out! □ do have some bad feelings toward LeDuc. But this plot, as you call it, bah! It's ridiculous. Nonsense."

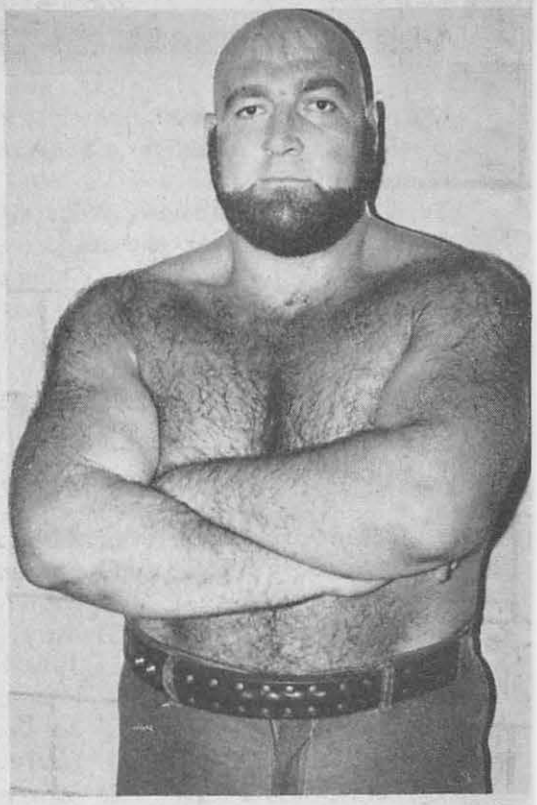
"Leduc has no talent," Von Hess stressed. "If three of us are together plotting to wipe him out, which I'm not saying we are, we'd be doing wrestling a sincere favor."

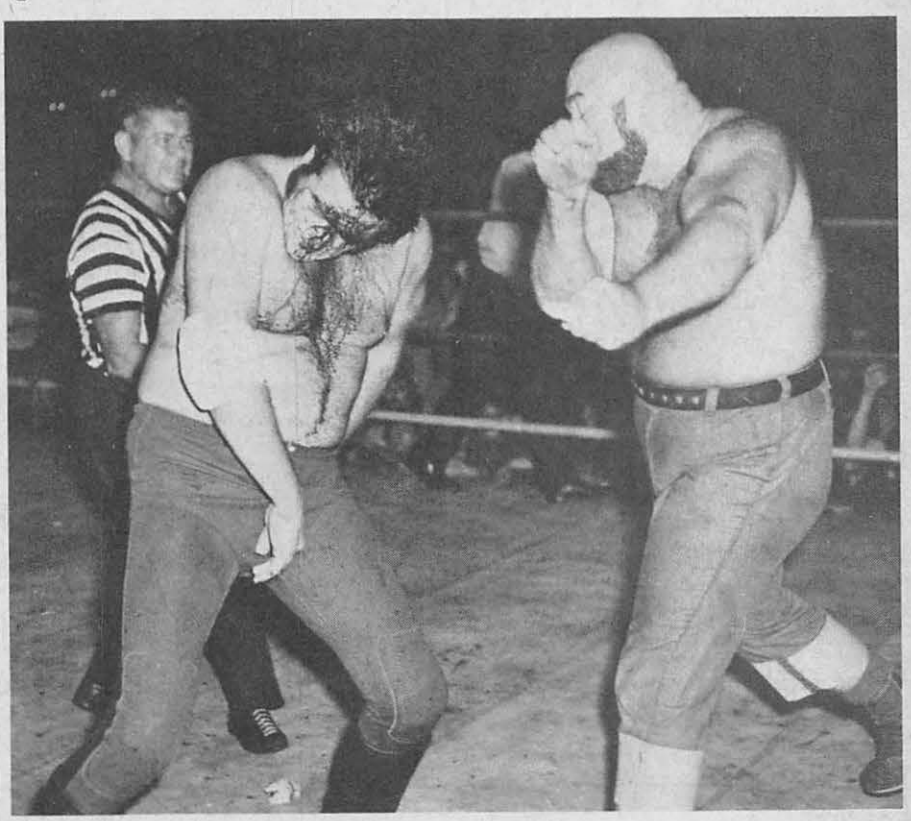
Von Shotz agreed with both of them. But none of them would admit to the plot.

"There is one," claimed Edouard Carpentier. "I have overheard these three men in a restaurant a few weeks ago. I sat in a booth next to them and listened in. I couldn't hear all the words they were saying but Joe's name came up very often. He'd better get some help soon."

"I don't need any help," Leduc snapped when he heard of Ed's suggestion. "Look, if they want to rub me out, let 'em try. I can handle them, individually."



Leduc (right) says, "Bring 'em on. I'm not afraid of the three of 'em. No plot is going to scare me!" Joe proves his point (below) by bashing in Dubois' head. "I'll take all three of them on at once," Joe exclaims. "Leduc is a nothing," the three agree. "He's got to be put out to pasture for his own good. We intend to kill him."



But that's not what the trio is looking for.

"Leduc has said many times that he can take on three men at once," Von Shotz claimed. "We'll take him up on his offer."

"I have said that," Joe admitted. "Okay, if they want to, I will."

And they did. But man, did those

JOE LEDUC

three ever regret it. They wrestled tag team style, tagging fast and often. Many times they got Joe in the corner and triple teamed him. But each time, Joe overpowered them. Then, one by one, he bashed their heads into the ringposts and turnbuckles until they were three of the bloodiest messes you've ever seen. But Joe didn't get off easy either. After they were good and bloody, Von Shotz tripped Joe and then bit chunks out of his forehead. Joe was bleeding profusely now.

Kurt Von Hess is failing in his attempts to destroy Joe. Joe did take on all three of them, finally, and beat them. "Leduc was lucky," Von Hess said. "He's a madman and madmen always have a lot more power than normal people. He's an animal and should be locked in a cage!" Joe's brother, Paul, and Edouard Carpentier offered to help Joe rub out the deadly trio but Joe refused. "I can handle them" he said.

"Stop the match!" fans yelled seeing all the blood.

"Don't!" Leduc ordered to the referee. "I'm fine." But the referee refused to listen to Joe and stopped the match.

"They're lucky they got off so easy," Leduc said. "You see, they can't handle themselves against one man. Let 'em try it again."

And from what we hear, they're going to take Joe up on his offer again.

"Next time," Von Hess stressed, "we will kill him. Leduc was lucky this time. But then a madman always has more power than you'd expect. He's a madman. He should be locked up like an animal. He's killing wrestling."

"That's right," Dubois agreed. "We will admit it. We are plotting against Joe Leduc. It's obvious now. There's no reason to hide it. Mr. Leduc, you will not finish up this year in one piece. We will tear you limb from limb. Rip you to shreds. Make you bleed to death!"

Joe says he's not afraid.

"All I can say," he explains, "is that I have a plot planned for them. It's at the cemetery! And they'll be takin' up that plot very soon!" □ work for him. No man can all of a sudden change styles and expect to succeed. Wrestling like another person means Brisco is no good to himself. And that means he can't take Race."

WHY JACK BRISCO WILL NEVER BEAT HARLEY RACE

Paul's voice softens as he concludes, "You have to admire him. It takes a tremendous amount of guts to change your style. If he does succeed, I wouldn't argue with anyone who calls him the greatest wrestler alive." Then Paul's voice hardens to add, "But I really can't see him succeeding."

Brisco knows the fans want him to take the title. In fact, all who love wrestling look to him as a knight ready to save a sport held captive by rulebreakers. The hopes of these people weigh heavily on this proud man's shoulders. Yet, he continues to wrestle the way he feels he must.

"I gave the championship three years of my life," Brisco states, "three years of scientific wrestling against all types of opponents. The pressure was tremendous, the schedule grueling, and my homelife was almost nonexistent. I'm not complaining or asking for sympathy. These are the facts. Don't get me wrong, I wouldn't have traded those three years for anything. But I think I've paid my dues to the sport. I've earned the right to do things my own way."

Experts believe Jack's own way will keep him from winning the NWA title. Experts have been wrong before. The fans hope they are wrong again this time. □

ANDRE THE GIANT

Just when Andre thought he had Rock Riddle under control, Roddy Piper joins the action and attacks the gargantuan wrestler. Andre faced this kind of ruthlessness throughout the entire match. It almost proved to be more than Andre could handle.

wrestle with the way the muscle is now without ever suffering any further injury. Probably. But if it happened again, I'd say there was an 80 percent chance you wouldn't survive."

The doctor let those words sink in before continuing, "Now, the muscle is not permanently damaged. It can be repaired. It'll take a lot of hard work, but you're no stranger to physical training. The decision is yours."

"When do we begin?"

"I think we have to wait a couple of weeks. Your body took one hell of a shock. You're going to have to take it easy for a few days. However, there's something I'd better add. You're going to have to cut down on your schedule. It was the inhuman number of matches you wrestle which caused the problem in the first place. Even after the muscle is healed, you'll have to slow down."

The bad news. Andre feared it had to come at some time.

"And what happens if I don't let up on my schedule?"

"No doctor in the world will take responsibility for you."

That's about as final as it gets. Andre had no choice but rethink his entire life. There would be matches to cancel, fans to disappoint. It couldn't be helped.

Andre thought a lot while laid up in the hospital bed. Fortunately, he'd been spared. He was still alive. The years remaining had to have some real purpose. He had to figure out where and against whom he would be needed most.

Roddy Piper tries to assist his partner during a crucial moment of the match. No tactic was too low for Riddle and Piper to employ against Andre!

There would have to be a serious consideration about a world title. No longer could that be put off until someday; someday was now. He would have to choose wisely and well. He could no longer afford to go after anyone when the fancy suited him. His enemies would have to earn the distinction.

Still, he knew he would always be at the fans beck and call. He would go where needed, no matter what the consequence. That would always be the most important consideration. If it meant risking his life on occasion, he would if the occasion warranted. Life isn't worth living on the run. Challenges must be met.

Andre hasn't worked out the specifics of his life. That will come in time. Commissions and promotions will have to be notified. A great deal of paperwork must be done. Changing a man's entire life is a complicated process.

Andre the Giant will continue to wrestle as well as ever. Yet, each match will have a special importance. These are the battles he has chosen as the most important in his life. □ someone else tells him is the right way to wrestle. Bugsy is the only guy I know who manages to beat everyone at his own game!"

BUGSY McGRAW

Bugsy's deranged stare is toward the fans while he illegally has his fingers wrapped around Dom DeNucci's windpipe. Most men who use these tactics receive boos from the fans; Bugsy can do no wrong for his many admirers. It's an astonishing phenomenon indeed!

Over and over again, this type of answer comes up in long discussions with fans. Most are embarrassed to admit they identify with or admire a psychotic. It is only after trusting the interviewer when they tell why Bugsy is their hero.

" 'Sick Power!' is my kind of power," says Harris Rogers of Scarsdale, New York. "Bugsy may not be the greatest wrestler in the world, but he's the smartest. He's his own man; he only listens to the wild thoughts running through his head. And these days, they're the only things that count!

"When it comes right down to it, Bruno Sammartino may win every title in sight—but so what? He does everything he's supposed to do. That's not my idea of being your own man. When it comes to taking no guff from anybody, Bugsy is the undisputed champion!

"Look, the whole stupid world has gone nuts. Who knows what to believe in anymore? Bugsy doesn't try to understand or believe in anyone else's rules. So what if everyone says he's crazy? What the hell have they done that's so wonderful lately?"

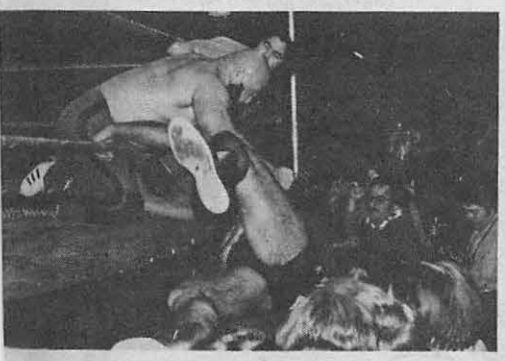
In these troubled times, a troubled man has become the unlikely hero of thousands. His popularity troubles his opponents. These are men who have done everything they could to earn the fans' respect.

"How do you figure it?" said a depressed Dominic DeNucci minutes after battling to a draw against Bugsy. "The fans were cheering him! He's the dirtiest wrestler around, he's nuttier than a tortoni, and he is managed by that louse, Albano. How can the fans cheer him when he does these things?



Bugsy continues his attack on Dominic even after DeNucci is thrown out of the ring and crashes hard on the press table.

"I'm not the only wrestler it bothers. All of McGraw's opponents feel the same way. We've earned the respect of fans; we've paid with our blood. Now, McGraw comes along, does everything wrong, and is cheered for it. A lot of guys I've talked to say they still feel dedicated to the sport—but the fans can take a flying leap!

"I don't feel that way; the fans have always been good to me. But I still can't understand why they cheer for McGraw."

When DeNucci is told about the reasons fans have given for cheering Bugsy, he just shakes his head in wonder. He is understandably shocked by fans finding a psychotic hero for any reason.

No one ever expected Bugsy McGraw to be a fan favorite. Of course, no one expected the world to belike it is today. It's terrifying to realize Bugsy is considered by many to be the man of the hour. □

Get in on the PROFITS in SMALL ENGINE service and repair

BEAT INFLATION!
Cash in on the huge demand for small engine repair.

Work part time, full time right at home - we help you every step of the way.

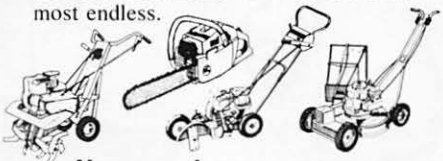
Start your own money making business!

In just a short time, you can be ready to join one of the fastest growing industries in America... an industry where qualified men are making from $10.00 to $15.00 per hour...and that's just for labor. Parts, engines and accessories add even more to the profits.

Because the small engine industry has grown so quickly, an acute shortage of qualified Small Engine Professionals exists throughout the country. In fact, it's not unusual for a good small engine man to be three to four weeks behind in the summer and at least a week behind in the winter. When you see how many small engines are in use today, it's easy to understand why qualified men command such high prices—as much as $17.50 for a simple tune-up that takes less than an hour!

46-million small engines are in service today!

That's right—there are over forty-six million 2-cycle and 4-cycle small engines in service across the U.S.A. That's the official count from the Engine Service Assn., and new engines are being built at a rate of one-million per month! With fully accredited and approved Belsaw training, you can soon have the skill and knowledge to make top money servicing these engines. Homeowners and businessmen will seek you out and pay you well to service and repair their lawnmowers, tillers, edgers, power rakes, garden tractors, chain saws, mini-bikes, go-carts, snowmobiles, generators, snowblowers, paint sprayers... the list is almost endless.



No experience necessary.

You don't need to be a 'born mechanic' or have prior experience. If you can read, you can master this profitable trade right at home, in your sparetime, without missing a single paycheck. Lessons are fully illustrated—so clear you can't go wrong.

You receive trade secrets and business plans.

We guide you every step of the way, including tested and proven instructions on how to get business, what to charge, how to get free advertising, where to get supplies wholesale... all the "tricks of the trade"... all the inside facts you need to assure success right from the start.

Increased Income

"I've had about 8 years experience repairing small engines... but repairs were only minor... until I started the Belsaw Course."
